in Cr.No.75/2026. ... Respondent/Complainant.

Petition dated 03.03.2026 through e-filed U/s.482 of BNSS seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioners/accused.

This petition coming on this day before me for order in the presence of Thiruvargal.S.Sethilkumar and M.A.Chinnappa, Advocates for the petitioners and the Public Prosecutor for the State and upon hearing both sides, this Court has delivered the following...

ORDER

These petitioners/accused seeks anticipatory bail for the alleged offences U/s.296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS.

2. The learned Counsel appearing for the petitioners/accused would submit that the petitioners did not involve in this case incident as alleged by prosecution; there was only a civil dispute between the defacto complainant and the petitioners and false complaint was preferred; that injured was discharged from the hospital; that counter case is also registered against the defacto complainant and others and counter case accused were already released on bail; that if they are released on anticipatory bail they will abide the conditions of this Court and that they may be released on anticipatory bail.

3. On the other hand, the learned Public Prosecutor contented that, due to civil dispute, at the time of incident, the accused persons uttered filthy language towards the defacto complainant and assaulted with rod and sticks and also issued life threat to him; that investigation is pending; if they are released on anticipatory bail, they will commit the similar offence again, they will abscond and that the petition may be dismissed.

4. Upon hearing the both side arguments, as per the FIR contents, it is seen that, due to civil dispute, at the time of alleged incident, the petitioners assaulted the defacto complainant and also criminally intimidated them. It is fairly conceded on prosecution that no any previous cases are reported against the petitioners. Admittedly injured was discharged from the hospital and counter case accused were also already released on bail. No any serious objections stated on Prosecution side except investigation is pending.

Considering the above circumstances and in the interest of justice, this Court is inclined to release the petitioners/accused on anticipatory bail on the following conditions:

(i) that the petitioners/accused in the event of their arrest or surrender before the learned District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Kunnam within 15 days from the date of this order and on such arrest or surrender the petitioners are ordered to be enlarged on anticipatory bail on his executing a bond each for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) with two sureties each for a like sum, to the satisfaction of the learned District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Kunnam; if the petitioners/accused are not surrender within 15 days from the date of this order this Anticipatory bail shall stands cancelled automatically;

(ii) the sureties shall affix their photograph and Left Thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar Card or Bank Pass Book to ensure their identity.

(iii) the petitioners/accused shall appear and sign before the respondent Police daily at 10.00 a.m. for 3 weeks.

(iv) the petitioners/accused shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

(v) the petitioners/accused shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

(vi) On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on anticipatory bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K. Shaji Vs. State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560].

(vii) If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered U/S.269 of BNS.

Pronounced by me in open Court, this the 6th day of March, 2026.

Principal District and Sessions Judge, Perambalur.
