The State rep. by Inspector of Police,
Padalur Police Station,
In Cr. No.57/2026.

... Respondent/Complainant.

Offences U/S. 24 (1) COTPA Act 2003 and 77 of the Juvenile Justice Act 2015.

This petition coming on this day before me for order in the presence of Thiruvalargal. E. Valluvan Nambi, C. Balraju, P. Elamaiselvan, P. Vadivel and S. Tharani Advocates for the petitioner and the Public Prosecutor for the State and upon hearing both sides, this Court has delivered the following...

ORDER

This petition has been filed U/s.483 of BNSS for grant of bail to the petitioner for the offences U/S. 24 (1) COTPA Act 2003 r/w 77 of the Juvenile Justice Act 2015.

2. The learned Counsel for the petitioner/accused stated that the dated of Occurrence on 17.02.2026 and that she was remanded in judicial custody on 17.02.2026 by the Judicial of Magistrate II, Perambalur and he has not committed any offence as alleged in the FIR and she was falsely and vindictively implicated in this case by the respondent police and that the earlier bail petition was dismissed by this Court in Crl.M.P.No.206/2026 dated 25.02.2026 and she is not filed any bail petition before any other legal forum and before the Hon'ble High Court at Madras

3. Reply received. The learned Public Prosecutor has argued that the petitioner is having Vimal Pakku 50 bundles and that the investigation is pending and if the accused is released on bail she will commit again the similar offence, and she will strongly objected to release the accused on bail.

4. Heard both sides. On perusal of records, this petitioner/accused was remanded on 17.02.2026 and also considered that Vimal Pakku 50 bundles of prohibited properties recovered from this petitioner and IO has failed to raise any objection with regard to their investigation in this case. Considering the period of remand investigation might be completed and that the earlier bail application was dismissed by this Court in CrI.M.P.No.206/2026 dated 25.02.2026. Considering the period of remand and under such facts and circumstances of the case, to secure the presence of the accused, with stringent conditions, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner on the following conditions:

(a) that the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his execution of a bond for Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousands only) with two sureties for a like sum to the satisfaction of Judicial of Magistrate II, Perambalur and one of the surety should be a blood related person or parents

(b) that the petitioner shall appear before the respondent Police Station, daily once at 10.00 a.m. for 30 days.

(c) the petitioner should produce proof for their permanent address.

(d) that the petitioner shall not hamper the investigation.

(e) that the petitioner should not leave India without intimation to this Court.

Pronounced by me in open Court, this the 07th day of March, 2026.

Sessions Judge,
Mahila Court, Perambalur.
