in Crime No.114/2026.

... Respondent/Complainant.

This petition came up today before this Court in the presence of Thiruvalargal.P.Kamarasu and P.Chandrakumar, Advocates for the petitioner and Thiru.P.Senthilnathan, the Public Prosecutor for the State and after careful consideration of the materials available on record and upon the submissions made on behalf of the parties, this Court has delivered the following...

ORDER

This is a petition U/S.483 of BNSS filed through online/e-filing mode.

2. Heard, the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Public Prosecutor.

3. The learned Counsel appearing for the petitioners/accused submitted that the respondent police has registered a case against the petitioners for the offences punishable U/S. 310(2) and 311 of BNS. The petitioners were subsequently arrested on suspicion and remanded to judicial custody on 07.05.2026 and they are in judicial custody for the past 33 days. More over this false case has been registered against the petitioners and they have no connection with this case. The petitioners are innocent persons and they did not commit any offences as alleged by the prosecution. The injured was discharged from the hospital. Partial amount was recovered. Co-accused were was already released on bail. The cases registered against the petitioners have resulted in acquittal. The petitioners are ready to abide by any conditions that would be imposed by this Court and prayed to grant bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Public Prosecutor vehemently opposed stating that as per the case of prosecution that on 06.05.2026, at about 5.00 pm, the accused persons entered into the shed where the defacto complainant and others playing cards and demanded money from the defacto complainant by putting him under threat. A1 attempted to stab him with a knife. However, the defacto complainant narrowly escaped, thereafter the accused persons attacked him on the head and caused head injuries and also and kicked him. Further, the accused persons snatched a sum of Rs.50,000/- from the defacto complainant. The petitioners already involved more previous cases and they are history sheeters. The investigation is pending and if they are released on bail, they will commit the similar offence again, they will hamper the investigation and that the petition may be dismissed.

5. This Court carefully considered the submissions made on by either side. The petitioners are A1, A2 and A4 and the case registered in Cr.No.114/2026 on the file of the respondent police. The records would go to show that the case was registered against totally 6 accused persons and among 3 of the accused persons have already been enlarged on bail. This is the 2nd bail application filed by the petitioners. They have been in incarceration since 07.05.2026. The portion of the stolen property has been recovered from the accused persons and major portion of the investigation is also completed.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioners on the following conditions:

(i) the petitioners/accused are ordered to be released on bail on executing a bond each for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum, to the satisfaction of the learned District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Veppanthattai and on further condition that;

(ii) the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhaar Card or Bank Pass Book to ensure their identity;

(iii) the petitioners/accused shall appear and sign before the respondent Police daily at 10.00 a.m. for a period of 30 days;

(iv) the petitioners/accused shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

(v) the petitioners/accused shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

(vi) On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K. Shaji Vs. State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560].

(vii) If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered U/S.269 of BNS.

Pronounced by me in open Court, this the 8th day of June, 2026.

Principal District & Sessions Judge, Perambalur.
