State rep. by the Inspector of Police,
Perambalur P.S.
Cr.No.226/2026.

... Respondent/Complainant.

This petition came up today before this Court in the presence of Thiruvalargal.S.Parameshwaran and M.Mohamed Rasul, Advocates for the petitioner and Thiru.P.Senthilnathan, the Public Prosecutor for the State and after careful consideration of the materials available on record and upon the submissions made on behalf of the parties, this Court has delivered the following...

ORDER

1. This is a petition U/S.483 of BNSS filed through online/e-filing mode.
2. Heard, the learned counsel for petitioner and the learned Public Prosecutor.
3. The learned Counsel appearing for the petitioner/accused submitted that the respondent police has registered a case against the petitioner for the offences punishable U/S.103(1) of BNS. The petitioner was subsequently arrested on suspicion and remanded to judicial custody on 11.04.2026 and he has been in judicial custody for the past 74 days. More over it is a false case registered against the petitioner and he has no connection with this case. The petitioner is an innocent and he did not commit any offences as alleged by the prosecution. There was a wordy quarrel between them and false complaint was preferred. Earlier bail applications were dismissed. Investigation is almost over. The petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions that would be imposed by this Court and prayed to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Public Prosecutor vehemently opposed stating that that there was an illegal intimacy between the deceased and the accused. The deceased did not engage in any communication with the accused. The accused threatened her to coerce the deceased into continuing the relationship. Keeping in the same mind, on 09.04.2026, the accused came to the scene of occurrence, brutally attacked the deceased, inflicting blood injuries and thereby murdered her. Investigation is completed and if he is released on bail, he will abscond, he will hamper the investigation and that the petition may be dismissed.

5. This Court carefully considered the submissions made on either side. The petitioner is the sole accused in a case registered by the respondent police and he was remanded to judicial custody on 11.04.2026 for the alleged offence punishable U/S.103(1) of BNS. The learned Public Prosecutor submitted that the investigation is completed and the final report is filed before the Judicial Magistrate No.I, Perambalur and the case was taken on file as a P.R.C. As the investigation is completed the chance to tamper the evidence is less. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, period of incarceration and the completion of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner on the following conditions:

(i) the petitioner/accused is ordered to be released on bail on executing a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties for a like sum, to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Perambalur and on further condition that

(ii) the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhaar Card or Bank Pass Book to ensure their identity.

(iii) the petitioner/accused shall appear and sign before the respondent Police daily at 10.00 a.m. for until further orders;

(iv) the petitioner/accused shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

(v) the petitioner/accused shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

(vi) On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K. Shaji Vs. State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560].

(vii) If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered U/S.269 of BNS.

Pronounced by me in open Court, this the 23rd day of June, 2026.

Principal District & Sessions Judge, Perambalur.
