

I.A.No.1/2024
in
M.C.O.P.No.142/2024

D.D.18.03.2025.

Order Pronounced.

This petition has been filed to condone the delay of 184 days in filing the application for claiming compensation under the Motor Vehicles Act.

2. The reason alleged by the petitioner is that he was taking treatment and therefore, he was not able to prefer a complaint in time and therefore, the delay of 184 days has been occurred.

3. The perusal of records shows that the 1st respondent was set exparte. The 2nd respondent filed vakalath and he has not stated why this petition shall not be allowed. Therefore, with a view to give an opportunity to the petitioners to contest the case on merits, this petition can be allowed.

4. In the result, this petition is allowed. No cost.

Principal District Judge,
Perambalur.

