..... Petitioner/ Accused No.4

Versus

State represented by the Inspector of Police,
Kenikarai P.S,
Ramanathapuram
Cr.No. 115/2026

..... Respondent/Complainant

For Petitioner : Tr. S. Hariharan, Advocate
For Respondent : Tr. Elango. APP.

This Petition taken on file on 05.03.2026 and coming up for final hearing on 06.03.2026. Upon hearing the arguments of both sides and upon perusal of the records and having stood over for consideration till this day, this court delivers the following.

ORDER

1. This is a petition filed by the petitioner/accused No.4 under section 480 BNSS for bail.
2. The Petitioner is accused No.4 in Cr.No. 115/2026 of Kenikarai Police Station for the offences punishable under sections 126(2), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 351(3) BNS. The nature of offence is non bailable.

3. The Learned counsel for Petitioner/accused No.4 has argued that, the Petitioner/Accused is innocent and no way connected with this offence. The Petitioner/Accused was remanded to judicial custody on 04.03.2026. He is in the Judicial Custody for the past 03 days. The respondent police has falsely foisted a case against him. The petitioner is innocent and has not committed any offence. The petitioner is law abiding citizen so he would not abscond. The petitioner assured that if released on bail he would not tamper the evidence. The petitioner is ready to abide any condition imposed by this court and produce sufficient sureties for his bail.
4. On the other hand, the Respondent Police has opposed to release the petitioner/Accused on bail by stating that, if released on bail the petitioner/Accused would abscond and not appear before this court during trial and also he would commit the same kind of offences. There is no previous criminal case pending against the accused. Heard both sides. Records perused.
5. Considering the rival submissions put forth by either sides and on perusal of entire materials on records, it is found that, the petitioner was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 04.03.2026. The Petitioner/Accused is in judicial custody for the past 03 days. No one got hospitalized in this case. The defacto complainant has appeared before this court and has filed affidavit stating that the issue has been compromised and he has no objection as to release of the petitioners. It is found that statements of 3 material witnesses has been recorded and the substantial portion of investigation is over. The petitioner has permanent place of abode and hence there is less chance for abscondance.

There is no previous criminal case pending against the accused.

6. Therefore considering the nature and gravity of the offence, the fact that the substantial portion of investigation is over, the period of incarceration of the accused, the fact that the petitioner has permanent place of abode, the custodial interrogation of the accused is not at all necessary at this point of time and all the above said aspects, this court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner/accused with some condition.
7. In the result, bail petition is allowed and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail with the following conditions,
  - (a) The Petitioner/Accused No.4 shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs. 10,000/- with two sureties for a like sum each to the satisfaction of this court and,
  - (b) The Petitioner/Accused No.4 shall report and sign before the respondent police daily at 10.00 A.M until further orders and thereafter the petitioner shall appear before the respondent police as and when required for interrogation and
  - (c) The Petitioner shall comply the conditions imposed u/s. 480(3) of BNSS and the petitioner shall not commit and indulge in any subsequent offence and in case of any violation of the said conditions, the police are at liberty to file petition for cancellation of this bail.
