CRIMINAL MISCELLANEOUS PETITION No.1346/2026
(CNR.No.TNSA010027902026)

Devarajan (32), S/o Palanisamy ... Petitioner/Accused.

Vs

State by: The Inspector of Police,
Gangavalli P.S.
Cr.No.162/2026.

... Respondent / Complainant.

This petition is filed on 04.06.2026 u/s 483 of BNSS, to grant bail to the petitioner.

This petition is coming on this day for hearing before me, Tmt.S.Deepika, Counsel for the petitioner appeared through video call and in the presence of the Public Prosecutor for the respondent, after perusing the averments, this Court delivered the following:

O R D E R

1) Heard both side and records perused. The petitioner is the accused in Cr.No.162/2026 of Gangavalli PS. The petitioner, who was remanded to judicial custody on 20.05.2026 for the alleged offences u/sec.4(1)(C) and 4(1-A)(ii) of TNP Act, has come forward with this petition seeking to release him on bail.

2) The case of the prosecution is that on 20.05.2026 at about 11.00 a.m., when the defacto complainant and his police team were in patrolling at 74 Krishnapuram South Street, the petitioner was found in possession of 18 bottles of Express Brandy (each 180 ml.), containing ingredients of poisonous substances. Hence this case.

3) The learned Counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence and he is falsely implicated in this case and for the past 18 days, he is in judicial custody and prayed to enlarge the petitioner on bail.

4) On the other hand, the learned Public Prosecutor has reiterated the facts of the case and submitted that the petitioner has already involved in yet another 04 cases, hence, he strongly objected to release the petitioner on bail.

5) In the stated circumstances, considering the nature of allegations levelled against the petitioner and the criminal antecedents of the petitioner, at this stage, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner and this petition deserves a dismissal.

6) In the result, this petition is dismissed.

Pronounced by me in Open Court, this the 06th day of June, 2026.
