Cr.No.80/2026

...Respondent/Complainant

This petition filed on 16.03.2026 under section 482 of BNSS., to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

This petition is coming on this day for hearing before me, in the presence of Tr.C.Kuzhanthaivelu, Counsel for the petitioner and the Public Prosecutor for the respondent, after perusing the averments, this Court delivered the following:

ORDER

Heard both side and perused the records.

2) This petition is filed by Counsel for petitioner/accused u/s.482 of BNSS., seeking anticipatory bail. The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent/police for the alleged offences punishable u/s.296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS, has filed this petition seeking to release him on anticipatory bail.

3) The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the defacto complainant are husband and wife; the defacto complainant used to go to work in a hotel; the petitioner used to come back drunk and would not go to work properly, suspect her and often quarreled with her; on 24.02.2026 at about 21.00 hours, at Eragundapatti Kattuvalavu, while the defacto complainant was in her house, the petitioner came under the influence of intoxication, abused her in filthy words, assaulted with stick on her backside head and fisted with hands and stone on her face, nose, cheek and left eye brow and caused injuries to her and also threatened her with dire consequences. Hence, this case.

4) The learned Counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the parties are husband and wife; the injured person has been discharged from the hospital; the petitioner is ready to abide any condition imposed by this Court and hence he prays to enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail.

5) The learned Public Prosecutor has reiterated the facts of the case and submitted that the petitioner and the defacto complainant are husband and wife; the petitioner used to come back drunk and would not go to work properly, suspect his wife and often quarreled with her. He further submitted that on the date of occurrence, the petitioner came under the influence of intoxication, abused the complainant in filthy words, assaulted her with stick hands and stone and caused injuries to her and also threatened her. He also submitted that the injured person has been discharged from the hospital on 04.03.2026; the investigation is pending and hence he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6) In the stated circumstances, considering the nature of the offence, the facts of the case, both side arguments, the allegations levelled against the accused and the stage of investigation, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

7) In the result, this petition is dismissed.

Pronounced by me in Open Court, this the 06th day of April, 2026.

Principal Sessions Judge,
Salem.
