2. According to the petitioner, he has not committed any offence and has been falsely implicated in this case. The allegations levelled against the accused is that the petitioner and other accused hunted deer by using country made gun. The petitioner has given undertaking that he would never abscond nor tamper or hamper the witnesses and ready to abide by any conditions imposed by the Court and willing to produce sufficient solvent sureties to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate. Hence, the petitioner pray for considering his anticipatory bail application.

3. The respondent filed his detailed objections in writing and the learned Public Prosecutor had submitted that the investigation is pending. In the event, if the petitioner is released on anticipatory bail, he would abscond and may not appear before the Court by abiding the condition and hence, the Public Prosecutor strongly opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. This Court has considered the rival submissions and perused the materials available on record.

5. Considering the fact that the petitioner was found to be in possession of deer meat meant for cooking biryani, this Court is not inclined to consider the anticipatory bail application of the petitioner.
