... Respondent / Complainant

This petition was taken on file on 25.03.2026 and coming up for final hearing on 06.04.2026 in the presence of Thiru. B.Arun, advocate appearing for petitioner and the Addl. Public Prosecutor for respondent / Complainant upon hearing the arguments of both sides and upon perusal of the records and having stood over for consideration till this day, this court delivers the following

ORDER

1. This is a petition filed by the petitioner / accused under section 483 of BNSS 2023 for bail.
2. Heard both sides, perused the documents. The Petitioner/accused in the Karumalaikoodal P.S. Cr.No.67/2011 for the offence punishable under sections 341,395 IPC. The nature of offence is non bailable.
3. The learned counsel appearing for petitioner has argued that the petitioner was under judicial custody in another case and he was produced on PT Warrant in this case and he was remanded on 02.02.2026 before this court and judicial custody for the past two month and he will not abscond or tamper with any witness and he is the only breadwinner of his family and a coolie worker and he is ready to obey the condition if any imposed. Therefore, the petitioner may be released on bail.
4. The learned Adl.P.P. has objected the bail application stating that the case in S.C. No. 87/2012 is pending against the petitioner for the offence punishable under sections 392 r/w 397 IPC and there are previous cases against the petitioner A5 at Karumalaikoodal P.S. Cr.No. 395,397IPC, Edappadi P.S. Cr.No. 470/2016 u/s 457, 380 IPC, Devoor P.S. Cr.No. 110/2017 u/s 395 IPC, Karumalaikoodal P.S. Cr.No.34/2017 U/s.395 IPC, Nangavalli P.S. Cr.No.106/2019 U/s.392, 397 IPC if petitioner was released on bail he is abscond and tamper witness. Hence, the prosecution strongly oppose to enlarge the petitioner on bail and the bail may be dismissed.

5. This court had carefully considered the rival submissions of both parties. On careful perusal of the records, it is found that the accused has been charged for the offences U/s. 341,395 IPC. It is further found that the accused has been arrested by the respondent police on 02.02.2026 through Non bailable warrant issued by this court and the petitioner has been in judicial custody for till date.
6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the period of incarceration of accused, this court is inclined to release the petitioner / accused No.5 on bail subject to conditions:
 - (i) The petitioner shall execute a bail bond for Rs. 10,000/- on his own along with two sureties each for the like sum with satisfaction of this court and both sureties should affix their photo and left thumb impression in the surety bond.
