

10 Ct. Cases 112/2025
Mukesh Vs. AVNISH KUMAR JHA

Lawyers are abstaining from work.

23.08.2025

Present: None for complainant.
 EO SI Mahesh through VC.

Report has been filed. Same is taken on record. Copy be supplied.

As per report inquiry was conducted in terms of previous order wherein both the parties were asked to provide source of funds used in purchase of disputes property. As per report, complainant submitted that he had sold his flat for an amount of Rs. 44 lacs and supplied documents of the concerned bank but has not supplied any other document. The proposed accused on the other hand stated that her father have provided the money to her to purchase the property in question. As per report, no cognizable offence is made out as it was the mutual understanding between the parties that proposed accused and flat will be registered in the name of Dimple.

Put up for arguments/further proceedings on 27.11.2025.

(Neetika Kapoor)
JMFC-06/SWD/Dwarka Court
New Delhi/23.08.2025