MOHAR SINGH BHATTI VS BEAS DEV etc.

Present: None for the complainant.

Accused in person.

Sh. SS Sekhon, Advocate, counsel for the accused.

Accused Beas Dev appeared before this Court today pursuant to the bailable warrants issued by this Court. Power of attorney filed by Sh. SS Sekhon, Advocate, on behalf of the accused.

The offence under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act is bailable in nature and as such, the accused has a right to be admitted to bail. Accordingly, accused Beas Dev is ordered to be admitted to bail on his furnishing bail bonds in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with one surety in the like amount.

Bail bonds furnished by the accused, which have been accepted and attested.

Heard. Notice of accusation served upon the accused today, to which he pleaded not guilty and claimed trial.

A perusal of the case file would reveal that from the contents of the complaint it is made out that detailed recording of evidence is required in the present case and in case, the case of the complainant is proved against the accused, then higher punishment is likely to be imposed on the accused. As such, the present case cannot be proceeded with as a summary trial.

In light of the foregoing facts, the case is adjourned to 23.09.2021 for the post-notice evidence of the complainant.

Date of Order: 12.07.2021
