The petition coming on this day for final hearing before me in the presence of Thiru.K.Balachandran, Advocate for the petitioner and of Thiru.A.Alagarsamy, Public Prosecutor for the State and after hearing the both side and perusing the petition, written reply and records, this Court delivers the following . . .

According to the petitioner, he is the sole accused in the crime number and as against him, allegations have been levelled by the defacto complainant alleging that the petitioner has threatened the general public by using prohibited weapon of sword and also deter the police personals from discharging their public duty and also illegally possessed with the same by creating law and order problem. the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate. Hence, the Petitioner prays for considering his bail application.

3. The respondent filed his detailed objections in writing and the learned Public Prosecutor had submitted that the investigation is still pending and the petitioner is involved in two previous cases. In the event, if the petitioner is released on bail, he would abscond and may not appear before the court by abiding the condition. He would indulge in similar offences and hence the Public Prosecutor strongly opposed the grant of bail application to the petitioner.

4. By considering the submissions of the parties and the fact that the petitioner is in judicial custody only from 07.03.2026 and the investigation is in premature stage and the petitioner is involved in two previous cases including one murder case. Further, the learned Public Prosecutor has strongly contended that in the event, if the petitioner is released on bail, he may abscond and may indulge in similar kind of offence in future. Considering the serious objections raised and also criminal antecedents of the petitioner, this Court is not inclined to consider the bail of the petitioner.

In the result, the petition is dismissed.
