The petition coming on this day for final hearing before me in the presence of Thiru.RMK.Ramprabhakar, Advocate for the Petitioner and of Thiru.A.Alagarsamy, Public Prosecutor for the State, after hearing both sides and perusing the written reply submitted by the respondent and records, this Court delivers the following . . .

ORDER:-

1. The petitioner, who is in judicial custody for the offences charged u/s.194 B.N.S.S @ 103(1) of B.N.S Act in Crime No.201/2025 of the respondent police since,17.12.2025 is seeking for his release on bail u/s.483 of B.N.S.S.

2. According to the petitioner, he is the sole accused in the crime number and as against him, allegations have been levelled by the defacto complainant alleging that the petitioner has committed murder of the deceased. According to the petitioner, he is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The Petitioner has given undertaking that he would never abscond nor tamper or hamper the witnesses and ready to abide by any condition imposed by the Court and willing to produce sufficient solvent sureties to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate. Hence, the Petitioner prays for considering his bail application.

3. The respondent filed his detailed objections in writing and the learned Public Prosecutor had submitted that in the event, if the petitioner is released on bail, he would abscond and may not appear before the court by abiding the condition. He may threaten the defacto complainant and hence, the Public Prosecutor strongly opposed the grant of bail application to the petitioners.

4. By considering the submissions of the parties and the fact that this is the 2nd bail application filed by the petitioner and earlier bail application was dismissed on the ground that the investigation was not completed. Now, considering the fact that the investigation has been completed, charge-sheet alone yet to be filed and the petitioner is not involved in any previous case. Considering the above circumstances, this Court is inclined to consider the bail application of the petitioner with the following conditions.

In the result, the petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing bond for Rs.10,000/- with two sureties each of like sum to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate, Manamadurai with a condition that the petitioner shall appear and sign before the Respondent Police Station daily morning at 10.00 a.m., and shall sign for 15 days and thereafter, shall appears on summon.
