The petition coming on this day for final hearing before me in the presence of Thiru.I.Muniandi, Advocate for the Petitioners and of Thiru.A.Alagarsamy, Public Prosecutor for the State, after hearing both sides and perusing the written reply submitted by the respondent and records, this Court delivers the following . . .

ORDER:-

1. The petitioners, who are in judicial custody for the offences charged u/s.296(b), 115(2), 351(3) of B.N.S Act and 4 of TNPWH Act in Crime No.30/2026 of the respondent police since 01.03.2026 and 02.03.2025 respectively are seeking for their release on bail u/s.483 of B.N.S.S.

2. According to the petitioners, they are ranked as A1, A2 in the crime number and there are totally two accused in the present case and as against them, allegations have been levelled by the defacto complainant alleging that the petitioners have abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and assaulted him and his wife by using hands and also threatened them with dire consequences. According to the petitioners, they are innocent and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The Petitioners have given undertaking that they are ready to abide by any condition imposed by the Court and willing to produce sufficient solvent sureties to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate. Hence, the Petitioners pray for considering their bail application.

3. The respondent filed his detailed objections in writing and the learned Public Prosecutor had submitted that the investigation is still pending and the petitioners are involved in several previous cases. In the event, if the petitioners are released on bail, they would abscond and may not appear before the court by abiding the condition. They may threaten the defacto complainant and his family members and hence the Public Prosecutor strongly opposed the grant of bail application to the petitioners.

4. By considering the submissions of the parties and the fact that the petitioners are in judicial custody from 01.03.2026 and 02.03.2026 respectively and the petitioners are ranked as A1, A2 in the present case and the injured have sustained only simple injury and they have already been discharged from the hospital. Considering the fact that though the petitioners got previous cases, they are granted bail in all those cases and the injured have already been discharged from the hospital and also the period of incarceration suffered by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to consider the bail application of the petitioners with the following stringent conditions.

In the result, the petition is allowed and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail on their executing bond for Rs.10,000/- each with two sureties each of like sum to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate, Karaikudi with a condition that the
