. . . Respondent / Complainant

This petition coming on this day for final hearing before me in the presence of Thiru.M.Mahendran, Advocate for the Petitioner and Thiru.A.Alagarsamy, Public Prosecutor for the State, after hearing both sides and perusing the written reply submitted by the respondent and records, this court delivers the following . . .

ORDER:-

1. The petitioner is apprehending arrest for the offences punishable u/s.147, 148, 447, 294(b), 427, 506(ii) of I.P.C and had filed this petition u/s.482 of B.N.S.S., seeking for his release on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest.

2. According to the petitioner, he is 3rd accused in the crime number and there are totally six accused in the present case and as against him, allegations have been levelled by the defacto complainant alleging that the petitioner along with other accused are formed themselves into an unlawful assembly with deadly weapons and committed riot and trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant and abused him with filthy language and also caused damage to the pipe line, EB box, EB Meter and Mirror worth about Rs.1,00,000/- of the house and also threatened him with dire consequences. According to the petitioner, he is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and injured has already been discharged from the hospital. The Petitioner had given undertaking that he would be ready to abide by any condition imposed by the court and willing to produce sufficient solvent sureties to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate. Hence, the Petitioner prays for considering his anticipatory bail to him.

3. The respondent filed his detailed objections in writing and the learned Public Prosecutor had submitted that in the event, if the petitioner is released on bail, he would abscond and may not appear before the court by abiding to the condition. He would also threaten the witnesses and complainant and would not face the trial and hence the Public Prosecutor strongly opposed the grant of anticipatory bail application to the petitioner.

4. By considering the submissions of the parties and the fact that there is a previous enmity between the parties and the petitioner is the 3rd accused in the present case and the alleged occurrence was took place on 23.04.2024 and no one has sustained injury in the incident and the petitioner is not involved in any previous case and co-accused have already been released on bail by the concerned Judicial Magistrate. Considering the fact that the investigation has been completed, charge-sheet alone yet to be filed, this Court is inclined to consider the anticipatory bail application of the petitioner with the following conditions.

In the result, the petition is allowed and the petitioner is directed to surrender before the jurisdiction Magistrate (District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Thiruppuvanam) within 15 days from the date of receipt of the order or in the event of
