(Cr.No.247/2026)

... Respondent / Complainant

The petition coming on this day for final hearing before me in the presence of Thiru.D.Ajaypriyan, Advocate for the Petitioners and of Thiru.A.Alagarsamy, Public Prosecutor for the State and memo filed and recorded and after hearing both sides and perusing the written reply submitted by the respondent and records, this court delivers the following :

ORDER:-

1. The learned counsel for the petitioners has filed a memo stating that the petitioner/A2 was arrested and released on bail by the learned Judicial Magistrate and hence, the petition is not pressed with respect of the petitioner/A2.
2. The petitioner/A1 is apprehending arrest for the offences punishable u/s.296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 351(3) of B.N.S Act and had filed this petition u/s.482 of B.N.S.S., seeking for his release on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest.

3. According to the petitioner, he is the 1st accused in the crime number and there are totally two accused persons in the present case and as against him, allegations have been levelled by the defacto complainant alleging that the petitioner along with another accused has abused the husband of the defacto complainant with filthy language and assaulted him by using sword and also threatened him with dire consequence. According to the petitioner, he is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The Petitioner had given undertaking that he would ready to abide by any condition imposed by the Court and willing to produce sufficient solvent sureties to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate. Hence, the Petitioner prays for considering his anticipatory bail to him.

4. The respondent filed his detailed objections in writing and the learned Public Prosecutor had submitted that investigation is still pending. In the event, if the petitioner is released on bail, he would abscond and may not appear before the court by abiding to the condition. He would also threaten the witnesses and complainant and would not face the trial and hence the Public Prosecutor strongly opposed the grant of anticipatory bail application to the petitioner.

5. By considering the submissions of the parties and the fact that this is the 2nd anticipatory bail application filed by the petitioner and earlier bail application was allowed by this Court in Crl.M.P.1232/2026, dated:08.06.2026 in favour of the petitioner, but he was not produced sufficient sureties within specified time and the same was automatically cancelled. Now, considering the fact that the petitioner is the 1st accused in the present case and the injured has sustained only simple injury, he has already been discharged from the hospital and the petitioner is not involved in any previous case. Considering the above circumstances, this Court is inclined to consider the anticipatory bail application of the petitioner with the following conditions.

In the result, the petition is allowed and the petitioner/A1 is directed to surrender before the jurisdiction Magistrate (Judicial Magistrate, Manamadurai) within 15 days from the date of receipt of the order or in the event of his arrest and production before the jurisdiction Magistrate concerned, he is ordered to be released on bail on his executing bond for Rs.10,000/- with two sureties each for like sum to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate, Manamadurai with a condition that the petitioner shall appear and sign before the Respondent Police Station daily at morning at 10.00 a.m., and shall sign for 15 days and thereafter, shall appear on summons. In the event, if the petitioner fails to surrender within 15 days from the date of order, the anticipatory bail granted automatically lapses.

The sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression and the Judicial Magistrate while considering the sureties, shall obtain the copy of their Aadhar card or bank pass book to ensure their identity.

The petitioner's photograph and Aadhaar Card with bank pass book copy shall also be obtained while considering the sureties.

The Petitioner shall make himself available for interrogation by the respondent police Officer as and when required for enquiry.

The Petitioner shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade from disclosing such facts to the court or to any Police Officer. That the petitioner shall not leave the State of Tamil Nadu without prior permission of the learned Judicial Magistrate. The Petitioner shall not commit further offences of similar nature and shall appear before the respondent police station as and when required.

The Petitioner shall co-operate for early disposal of the matter.

On breach of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Judicial Magistrate, before whom the case is pending is at liberty to initiate / take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as laid down in the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji Vs. State reported in AIR 2005 SCW 5506.

In the event, if the petitioner absconds, a fresh F.I.R shall be registered u/s.269 of B.N.S.

As far as the petitioner/A2 petition is concerned, the petition is dismissed as not pressed.

Given by me, this the 06th day of July – 2026.
