(Cr.No.242/2026)

... Respondent / Complainant

This petition coming on this day for final hearing before me in the presence of Thiru.B.Anantha Kumar, Advocate for the Petitioner and of Thiru.Thiru.R.Balamuruganantham, Public Prosecutor for the State, after hearing both sides and perusing the written reply submitted by the respondent and records, this court delivers the following ...

ORDER:-

1. The petitioner, who is in judicial custody for the offences charged u/s.296(b), 118(1), 109(1), 103(1) of B.N.S Act @ 49, 191(2), 191(3), 296(b), 118(1), 109(1), 103(1) of B.N.S Act in Crime No.242/2026 of the respondent police, since 11.05.2026 is seeking for her release on bail u/s.483 of B.N.S.S.

2. According to the petitioner, she is the 7th accused in the present case and there are totally twelve accused in the crime number and as against her, allegations have been levelled by the defacto complainant alleging that the petitioner, along with the other accused, entered into a criminal conspiracy and formed an unlawful assembly in furtherance of their common object and abused the son of the defacto complainant with filthy language and assaulted him and his friends by using weapons with an intention to murder, in which, his friends have sustained injuries and also committed murder of the deceased. According to the petitioner, this is the 2nd bail application and she is innocent and she has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The Petitioner has given undertaking that she would never abscond nor tamper or hamper the witnesses and ready to abide by any condition imposed by the court and willing to produce sufficient solvent sureties to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate. Hence, the Petitioner prays for considering her bail application.

3. The respondent filed his detailed objections in writing and the learned Public Prosecutor had submitted that the investigation is still pending and the petitioner is involved in several previous cases. In the event, if the petitioner is released on bail, she would abscond and may not appear before the court by abiding the condition. Hence the Public Prosecutor strongly opposed the grant of bail application to the petitioner.

4. By considering the submissions of the parties and the fact that this is the 2nd bail application filed by the petitioner and earlier bail application was dismissed on the ground that the investigation was not completed. Now, considering the fact that the investigation is still pending and the petitioner is the 7th accused in the present case and also there is no change in circumstances to consider this bail application, this Court is not inclined to consider the bail application of the petitioner as the investigation is still pending.

In the result, the petition is dismissed.

Given by me, this the 06th day of July – 2026.
