(Cr.No.256/2026)

. . . Respondent / Complainant

This petition coming on this day for final hearing before me in the presence of Thiru.RMK.Ramprabhakar, Advocate for the Petitioner and of Thiru.R.Balamuruganantham, Public Prosecutor for the State, after hearing both sides and perusing the written reply submitted by the respondent and records, this court delivers the following. . .

.2.
ORDER:-

CrI.M.P.No.1515/2026

1. The petitioners are apprehending arrest for the offences punishable u/s.191(2), 296(b), 118(1), 303(2) NH, 351(3) of B.N.S and 4 of TNPWH Act and had filed this petition u/s.482 of B.N.S.S., seeking for their release on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest.

2. According to the petitioners, they are ranked as A1 to A5 and there are totally five accused in the present case and as against them, allegations have been levelled by the defacto complainant alleging that the petitioners are formed themselves into an unlawful assembly with deadly weapons and abused defacto complainant with filthy language and assaulted him and his mother by using iron rod and wooden stick and committed theft of gold 5 sovereign of gold neck chain from the defacto complainant's daughter and threatened them with dire consequences and also harassed her. According to the petitioners, they are innocent and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and the injured have already been discharged from the hospital. The Petitioners had given undertaking that they would be ready to abide by any condition imposed by the Court and willing to produce sufficient solvent sureties to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate. Hence, the Petitioners pray for considering them anticipatory bail to them.

3. The respondent filed his detailed objections in writing and the learned Public Prosecutor had submitted that investigation is still pending and the stolen property has not yet been recovered. In the event, if the petitioners are released on bail, they would abscond and may not appear before the Court by abiding the condition. They would indulge in similar offences and hence the Public Prosecutor strongly opposed the grant of bail application to the petitioners.

CrI.M.P.No.1515/2026

4. By considering the submissions of the parties and the fact that this is the case in counter and the injured have already been discharged from the hospital and the petitioners are not involved in any previous case. Per contra, the learned Public Prosecutor has strongly opposed the petition stating that the investigation is in premature stage and the stolen property has not been recovered and in the event, if the petitioners are released on bail, they may abscond and also may threaten the defacto complainant and his family members. Considering the serious objections raised, this Court is not inclined to consider the bail application of the petitioners.

In the result, this petition is dismissed.
