CrI.M.P.No.1512/2026

This petition coming on this day for final hearing before me in the presence of Thiru.M.Mohanasundaram, Advocate for the Petitioners and of Thiru.R.Balamuruganantham, Public Prosecutor for the State, after hearing both sides and perusing the written reply submitted by the respondent and records, this court delivers the following . . .

ORDER:-

1. The petitioners are apprehending arrest for the offences punishable u/s.NIL and had filed this petition u/s.482 of B.N.S.S., seeking for their release on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest.

2. According to the petitioners, there are totally six accused in the present case and as against them, allegations have been levelled by the defacto complainant alleging that the petitioners have harassed the defacto complainant by demanding more dowry. According to the petitioners, they are innocent and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and no one injured in this case. Further, there is a family dispute between the parties and the 2nd petitioner is the husband of the defacto complainant. The Petitioners had given undertaking that they would be ready to abide by any condition imposed by the court and willing to produce sufficient solvent sureties to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate. Hence, the Petitioners pray for considering his anticipatory bail to them.

3. The respondent filed his detailed objections in writing and the learned Public Prosecutor had submitted that FIR is not registered in this case and there is a matrimonial dispute between the parties and the investigation is in premature stage and the respondent police issued summon to the petitioners, but they are not appeared for the investigation till date. Hence, the Public Prosecutor prays for dismissal of the anticipatory bail application of the petitioners.

4. By considering the submissions of the parties and the fact that there is a matrimonial dispute between the parties and the petitioners, defacto complainant are same family members and no body sustained injury in the incident and the petitioners are not involved in any previous case and further the 1st and 3rd petitioners aged about 63 and 55 years respectively and 2nd petitioner is working at Hyderabad and 4th petitioner is a college student. Considering the above and also the relationship of the both parties, this Court is inclined to consider the anticipatory bail application of the petitioners with the following conditions:

In the result, the petition is allowed and the petitioners are directed to surrender before the jurisdiction Magistrate (Judicial Magistrate, Additional Mahila Court, Sivagangai) within 15 days from the date of receipt of the order or in the event of their arrest and production before the jurisdiction Magistrate concerned, they are ordered to be released on bail on their executing bond for Rs.10,000/- each with two sureties each for like sum to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate, Additional Mahila Court, Sivagangai with a condition that the petitioners/A1, A3 shall appear and sign before the Kalaiyarkovil Police Station weekly once on every Sunday morning at 10.00 a.m., and shall sign for 6 weeks and the petitioners/A2, A4 shall appear and sign before the Koyambedu Police Station weekly once on every Sunday morning at 10.00 a.m., and shall sign for 6 weeks and the petitioners/A5, A6 shall appear and sign before the Paramakudi Police Station daily morning at 10.00 a.m., and shall sign for 15 days and thereafter, shall appear on summons. In the event, if the petitioners fails to surrender within 15 days from the date of order, the anticipatory bail granted automatically lapses.

The Petitioners shall make themselves available for interrogation by the respondent police Officer as and when required for enquiry.

The sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression and the Judicial Magistrate while considering the sureties, shall obtain the copy of their Aadhar card or bank pass book to ensure their identity.

The petitioners' photograph and Aadhaar Card with bank pass book copy shall also be obtained while considering the sureties.

The Petitioners shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade from disclosing such facts to the court or to any Police Officer. That the petitioners shall not leave the State of Tamil Nadu without prior permission of the learned Judicial Magistrate. The Petitioners shall not commit further offences of similar nature and shall appear before the respondent police station as and when required.

The Petitioners shall co-operate for early disposal of the matter.

On breach of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Judicial Magistrate, before whom the case is pending is at liberty to initiate / take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as laid down in the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji Vs. State reported in AIR 2005 SCW 5506.
