2. According to the petitioner, he is the accused in the crime number and as against him, allegations have been levelled by the de-facto complainant alleging that the petitioner was found to be in possession of 28 liquor bottles and cash Rs.1,700/-, which is said to be sale proceeds of the liquor. According to the petitioner, he is innocent and he had not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has given undertaking that he would never abscond nor tamper or hamper the witnesses and ready to abide by any condition imposed by the court and willing to produce sufficient solvent sureties to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate. Hence, the petitioner prays for considering his bail application.

3. The respondent filed his detailed objections in writing and the learned Public Prosecutor had submitted that and the petitioner is involved in 61 previous cases and the investigation is still pending and in the event, if the petitioner is released on bail, he would abscond and may not appear before the court by abiding the condition. He would indulge in similar kind of offence and hence, the Public Prosecutor strongly opposed the grant of bail application to the petitioner.

4. By considering the submissions of the parties and the petitioner was found to be in possession of 28 liquor bottles and considering the fact that the petitioner is involved in 61 previous offences and he is a habitual offender in the locality and in the event if the petitioner is enlarged on bail, he would again repeat the offences in the future and this is the 2nd bail application filed by the petitioner and the earlier bail application was dismissed by this court in Crl.M.P.No.468/2026 dated 10.03.2026 and no change in circumstances made out by the petitioner to consider the present application. Considering the above circumstances, this court is not inclined to consider the bail application of the petitioner. Hence this petition is dismissed.

In the result, this petition is dismissed.
