Vs.

The State rep. by

(Cr.No.142/2026)

... Respondent / Complainant

The petition coming on this day for final hearing before me in the presence of Thiru. R. Vijayaraj, Advocate for the petitioner and Thiru. V. Veerasiva, Public Prosecutor for the State, after hearing both sides and perusing the written reply submitted by the respondent and records, this court delivers the following ...

ORDER

1. The petitioner is apprehending arrest for the offences charged u/s.296(b), 115(2), 351(3) BNS and 4 of TNPHW Act and had filed this petition u/s.482 of B.N.S.S., seeking for his release on anticipatory bail in the event of his arrest.

2. This is an application for anticipatory bail in respect of a case registered against the petitioner / accused u/s.296(b), 115(2), 351(3) BNS and 4 of TNPHW Act.

4. The prosecution is given notice. The learned Public Prosecutor strongly objected to release the accused on the ground that the investigation is not yet completed.

5. Considering the rival submissions, it is noticed that the occurrence has taken place on 21.05.2026 and the FIR was registered on 24.05.2026 and except Section 4 of TNPHW Act, the other offences are bailable in nature. A cursory perusal of the case records would go to show that there was a monetary transaction between the parties and the present dispute appears to have arisen out of the said transaction. The learned Public Prosecutor admits that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Moreover, the co accused A1 was already released on bail by the Judicial Magistrate Court, Aundipatti in Crl.M.P.No.1315/2026 dated 06.06.2026. Therefore, most part of the investigation ought to have been completed. It is further noticed that the accused has got permanent residence within the jurisdiction of the respondent police and there is no possibility of fleeing from justice. The accused person seemed to be first offender. No previous case is pending against her. Considering the totality of the facts and circumstances of the case, this court is inclined to consider the anticipatory bail application of the petitioner with the following conditions.

(i) Bond and Sureties :-

In the result, the petition is allowed and the petitioner is directed to surrender before the Jurisdiction Magistrate, Aundipatti within 15 days from the date of
