... Petitioner/Accused

Vs.

The State rep. by
The Inspector of Police,
Thenkarai Police Station,
(Cr.No.06/2025)

... Respondent / Complainant

The petition coming on this day for final hearing before me in the presence of Thiru. S. Kajamydeen, Advocate for the petitioner and Thiru. V. Veerasiva, Public Prosecutor for the State, after hearing both sides and perusing the written reply submitted by the respondent and records, this court delivers the following ...

ORDER

1. The petitioner is apprehending arrest for the offences charged u/s.296(b) and 79 BNS and had filed this petition u/s.482 of B.N.S.S., seeking for his release on anticipatory bail in the event of his arrest.

2. This is an application for anticipatory bail in respect of a case registered against the petitioner / accused u/s.296(b) and 79 BNS.

3. The learned counsel for the accused submits that the accused is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence. If he is enlarged on anticipatory bail, he would furnish sufficient sureties.

4. The prosecution is given notice. The learned Public Prosecutor strongly objected to release the accused on the ground that the investigation was over and the final report had been filed.

5. Considering the rival submissions, it is noticed that the occurrence has taken place on 02.01.2026 and the FIR was registered on 03.01.2026. As per the case of the prosecution, the accused acted in an obscene manner in front of the de-facto complainant and also used filthy language against her. The learned Public Prosecutor fairly conceded that the investigation was over and the final report had been filed and taken on file as P.R.C.No.51/2026. Therefore, as the investigation has been completed and the final report has been filed, no purpose would be served by denying the relief of anticipatory bail. It is further noticed that the accused is residing within the jurisdiction of the respondent police and there is nothing on record to indicate that he is likely to flee from justice and the accused seems to be a sole breadwinner of the family. The accused person seemed to be first offender. No previous case is pending against him. Considering the totality of the facts and circumstances of the case, this court is inclined to consider the anticipatory bail application of the petitioner with the following conditions.

(i) Bond and Sureties :-

In the result, the petition is allowed and the petitioner is directed to surrender before the Jurisdiction Magistrate, Periyakulam within 15 days from the date of
