...Respondent/ Complainant

The petition has been filed on behalf of Petitioner/Accused to release him on bail u/s 480 of BNSS This application/petition coming before me for a final hearing on 03.07.2026 This court has taken up this petition for bail in pursuance of the bail petition filed by Thiru.P.Kannan Learned Counsel for the petitioner and upon perusing the petition and the relevant materials on record and upon hearing both sides arguments, this court passes the following

ORDER

1. Heard both sides. Records perused. The petitioner is the accused in Crime. No.91/2026 of Kadamalaikundu Police Station for the alleged offence U/s.296(b),75, 324(4), 351(2)BNS & 4 of TNPHW ACT. Learned counsel for Petitioner has filed this bail petition seeking for grant of bail.

2. The petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and had not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner is a law-abiding citizen and he has given an undertaking that he would never abscond nor tamper or hamper the witnesses and is ready to abide by any condition imposed by the court. The petitioner has been in prison from 29.06.2026 for 05 days. Hence, the petitioner prays for consideration of his bail application.

3. Per contra, the respondent filed his detailed objections in writing had submitted even though investigation is still pending in this case. In the event, that the petitioner is released on bail, he would abscond and may not appear before the court by abiding the condition. He would indulge in a similar kind of offence and hence, strongly opposed the grant of bail application to the petitioner.

4. This court considered the rival submissions and perused the available records. The offence under section U/s. 75 BNS & 4 of TNPHW ACT is Non-bailable in Nature. By considering the above fact and the strong objection made by the prosecution this court is not inclined to allow this petition.

In the result this petition is dismissed.

This order is dictated to Steno-typist, typed by her in system, corrected and pronounced by me in open court on this 03.07.2026
