...Respondent/ Complainant

The petition has been filed on behalf of Petitioner/Accused to release him on bail u/s 480 of BNSS This application/petition coming before me for a final hearing on 13.07.2026 This court has taken up this petition for bail in pursuance of the bail petition filed by Thiru. Tharmadurai Learned Counsel for the petitioner and the Learned Assistant Public Prosecutor, representing the state, upon perusing the petition and the relevant materials on record and upon hearing both sides arguments, this court passes the following

ORDER

1. Heard both sides. Records perused. The petitioner is the accused in Crime. No.244/ 2026 of G.Vilaku Police Station for the alleged offence U/s.303(2) BNS. Learned counsel for Petitioner has again filed this petition, seeking for grant of bail.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and had not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner is a law-abiding citizen and he has given an undertaking that he would never abscond nor tamper or hamper the witnesses and is ready to abide by any condition imposed by the court. The petitioner has been in prison from 01.07.2026 for 13 days. Hence, the petitioner prays for consideration of his bail application.

3. Per contra, the respondent filed his detailed objections in writing and the learned Public Prosecutor had submitted that the accused has previous cases and in the event of releasing the petitioner on bail, there are chances that he would abscond and may not appear before the court by abiding the conditions, and also there are chances that he would indulge in a similar kind of offence and hence, the Public Prosecutor strongly opposed the grant of bail application to the petitioner.

4. This court considered the rival submissions and perused the available records. The offence under section U/s.303(2) of BNS is Non-bailable in Nature. Considering the gravity of the offense and the fact that the investigation is pending and the strong objection made by the prosecution, this Court is not inclined to allow this application.

In the result this petition is dismissed.

This order is dictated to Steno-typist, typed by her in Computer, corrected and pronounced by me in the open court on this the 13th day of July 2026
