.... Respondent / Complainant

Petition filed U/s. 480 BNSS to release the accused on bail.

This petition was filed online on 08.06.2026 by the counsel for the petitioner Ms.Reshma, Advocate, for the petitioner and Learned APP filed objection for the Respondent and upon perusal of case records and on merits this court delivers the following.

ORDER

The petitioner/Accused is seeking bail for the offence alleged to have been committed by him. U/s.296(b),121(1),351(3) BNS in Cr.No.177/2026 of Avinashi palayam, Police Station.

2.The Learned counsel for the petitioner/accused would submit that the petitioner has been falsely charged for the offences under sections 121(1), 296(b),351(3) BNS which is registered in FIR No.177/2026 dated on 23.05.2026. Later petitioner had been arrested on the same day 23.05.2026 and remanded into judicial custody on 23.05.2026. At that time of arrest the petitioner informed that he was not involved in the above offence. But the respondent police have forcibly took and wantonly arrested the petitioner and was sent to jail on 23.05.2026 and was in judicial custody to till date for the past 9 days. Petitioner having family permanent residence in their locality. The petitioner No.1 is a father and petitioner No.2 is a son. The petitioner is a daily wager and they were suffering for their daily needs. The allegations mentioned in the FIR are all wrong and falsely stated by the respondent. The petitioner had not involved in the above said offence as stated in the FIR. The petitioner is very innocent. The petitioner is an old age person and he is suffering from old age disorder. The petitioner has granted own bail by this Hon'ble court on 23.05.2026. The petitioner is a law abiding citizen and will not abscond and he will appear before police station at any time for Enquiry. The petitioner being permanently settled and strong roots in society there can be no apprehension of the petitioner fleeing from justice. The petitioner's family is depending upon him. There is no previous case against him. The Petitioner/Accused is the law-abiding citizen and he is hailing from very reputed family. The petitioner is the only bread winner of his family. The accused will not abscond or tamper with the prosecution witnesses if he is released on Bail. The accused undertakes to appear before this Hon'ble court for every hearing without fail. The petitioner is ready to abide any condition, which may be imposed on them by this Hon'ble court. The Petitioner/Accused is prepared to furnish substantial sureties to their due appearance. The petitioner have not filed Bail petition before Hon'ble High Court at Madras.

3.The respondent filed reply and submitted that the case is still pending at the stage of investigation. In this case, the injured plaintiff is required to obtain a medical certificate, and a case is pending against the accused, registered at the Avinashipalayam Police Station as Crime No. 176/2026 under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 118(1), and 351(3) of the BNS and Section 4 of the TNPHW Act. At this stage, If the Petitioner/ Accused is released on bail he will commit similar offence at various place and create law and order problems. Even he will even try to abscond to some other place and it will be difficult for police to secure him. Even he will try to tamper the investigation. Hence the prosecution side strongly opposed to release the accused on bail.

4. Records perused. On Perusal of materials placed on records, it would disclosed that the Petitioners/Accused was remanded to Judicial custody on 23.05.2026 for the past 20 days. Hence on considering the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of offence. They are assured for co-operation in investigation and trial, this court is inclined to enlarge the petitioners/ Accused on bail subject to following conditions.

5. In the result the Petitioners/Accused is ordered to be released on bail on their execution of bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- and the Petitioner/Accused shall produce two sureties in that one surety must be a close relative (blood relative)

i) The petitioners shall appear and sign before this court at 10.00Am weekly once on Every monday for a period of 2 month.

ii) The petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness during trial.

iii) The petitioners shall not abscond either investigation or during trial.

iv) If the accused thereafter abscond, a fresh FIR may be filed U/s. 269 BNSS as per direction rendered in P.K. Shaji Vs State of Kerala reported in (2005) AIR SCW 5560.

v) The petitioner/Accused shall appear before this court on Summons.

Accordingly, the bail petition is allowed.

Judicial Magistrate, Palladam.
