The learned Counsel appearing for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner is innocent and has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

In contra, the learned Public Prosecutor would raise objection through a report of concern police by stating that the petitioner along with co-accused alleged to have lurked into the house of the defacto complainant in committing theft over the valuables worth Rs.1,80,000/- on the date of occurrence and hence, sought to dismiss the application.

Both side heard. Records perused. The alleged date of occurrence is on 06.02.2026 and the First Information Report was registered on the very same day and the petitioner was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 11.02.2026 and he is in incarceration for past 24 days. The petitioner is arrayed as A2 in this case and as per the report of concern police, five other previous case of similar nature are pending against the petitioner and Goondas against him also initiated and the investigation is in progress.

By considering the facts and circumstances, nature and gravity of offence, stage of the investigation, the manner in which the offence alleged to have taken place, antecedent of the petitioner and the interest of society at large, this court is not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail.

In the result, the petition is dismissed.
