ORDER

Disposal Type: Conviction

Accused No.2 appeared before this Court and surrendered, whereupon the warrant pending against him was recalled. Thereafter, Accused No.2 filed an admission petition and pleaded guilty to the charges framed against him. The materials available on record were perused. Upon such consideration and in view of the voluntary plea of guilt, this Court finds Accused No.2 guilty for the offences punishable under Sections 59(1) and 63 of the Food Safety and Standards Act, 2006. Accordingly, Accused No.2 is convicted and sentenced to undergo imprisonment till the rising of the Court and to pay a fine of Rs.10,000/- for the offence under Section 59(i) of the FSSA, in default to undergo Simple Imprisonment for one week. Further, Accused No.2 is convicted and sentenced to undergo imprisonment till the rising of the Court and to pay a fine of Rs.10,000/- for the offence under Section 63 of the FSSA, in default to undergo Simple Imprisonment for one week. Thus, the total fine imposed on Accused No.2 is Rs.20,000/-. Insofar as Accused No.1 is concerned, the warrant issued against him has been pending for a considerable period and no progress has been made in securing his presence before this Court. It is also noted that Accused No.1 is only an employee of Accused No.2 and is not directly involved in the purchase or manufacture of the food articles in question, and the liability has substantially been addressed through Accused No.2. In such circumstances, this Court finds it appropriate to stop further proceedings against Accused No.1 under Section 258 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. Case as against A1 is ordered to be split up
