Cr.No.20/2026

.... Respondent/Complainant

This petition coming on this day before me for hearing in the presence of Thiru.A.Rajesh Kannan, Advocate for the petitioner/accused and Thiru.N.Ranjith, Special Public Prosecutor appearing for the Respondent/Complainant and upon hearing the arguments of both sides and on perusal of records this court passed the following,

ORDER

This petition has been filed under section 483 of BNSS and Sec.37 of NDPS Act praying an order to enlarge the petitioner/accused on bail.

The learned counsel for the petitioner/accused would submit that the petitioner has been charged for the offences under section 8(c) r/w 20(b)(ii)(B) of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substance Act 1985 and he was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 16.02.2026 and he is innocent person and he has not committed any such offence and he is having permanent residence and hence, he will not abscond or evade process of law and he undertakes that he will not tamper or tutor the prosecution witnesses and he prepares to undergo any condition to be imposed by this court and prayed to release the petitioner on bail.

On the other hand, the learned Special Public Prosecutor would submit that the investigation is pending and so many previous cases are pending against the petitioner/accused including NDPS Act and if the petitioner is released on bail, he will abscond and he will again commit the same kind of offence and prayed to dismiss the petition.

Considering the facts and circumstances of this case and the investigation has not been completed and so many previous cases are pending against the petitioner/accused including NDPS Act and if the petitioner is released on bail, he will again commit the similar offence and hence, this court is declined to allow this petition.

In the result, this petition is dismissed.

Pronounced by me in the open court, this the 11th day of March 2026.

Additional District Judge/Presiding Officer,
Special Court under E.C. Act, Thanjavur.
