...Respondent / Complainant

This is a petition filed by the petitioner u/s.482 of BNSS., seeking Anticipatory bail.

This petition coming on for final hearing before me today in the presence of Thiru.R.Rajendran, advocate for the petitioner and of Thiru.R.Madialagan, Public Prosecutor appearing for the State and upon hearing the arguments of both sides and having stood over for consideration till this date, this Court has passed the following

...

ORDER

Heard both sides.

The petitioner/accused is seeking anticipatory bail for the offences alleged to have been committed by him u/s.296(b), 118(1), 351(3) of BNS concerned in Cr.No.237/2026 of Swamimalai P.S.

The learned counsel for the petitioner/accused submits that he has not committed any offences as alleged in the petition and he has been falsely implicated in this case. The petitioner is apprehending arrest in the hands of the respondent and prays to release him on anticipatory bail.

The learned Public Prosecutor submits that there are totally two accused in this case and the petitioner is the 2nd accused. He states that on account of civil dispute, on 23.06.2026 at about 23.00 Hours, the accused scolded the defacto complainant in filthy language, assaulted him with aruval and wooden log and caused injuries on his back and left hand and threatened him with dire consequences. The injured has been discharged from the hospital. No previous case is pending against the petitioner. Investigation is still pending. This accused is required for interrogation. Hence, he strongly objected to release him on anticipatory bail.

It is seen that on account of civil dispute, on 23.06.2026 at about 23.00 Hours, the accused scolded the defacto complainant in filthy language, assaulted him with aruval and wooden log and caused injuries on his back and left hand and threatened him with dire consequences. Investigation is still pending.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of the offence, and the nature of injury sustained by the injured person by aruval and investigation is still pending, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

In the result, the petition is dismissed.

Pronounced by me in Open Court, this the 8th day of July, 2026.

Principal District and Sessions Judge, Thanjavur.
