

ORDER

The Instant applicant was fined for today's date of hearing. The minor children of complainant namely Rizvan Mir and Rehana Mir both were produced before court. Apparently they appear to be minor of 13 + 10 years of age respectively. The both kids have openly stated before court that their mother has contracted 2nd marriage and they are living with their maternal uncle and granny (Nani) since as far question of natural guardian is concerned no one is better than father to be a natural guardian even when the mother of kids has contracted 2nd marriage. Then the confirmation of minors with it considered to be illegal as their father is alive and is of sound mind person. Thus the kids were given to the complainant father in open court and in that respect the statement of complainant is recorded. Shabir Mulla is released from the judicial custody and is set free. The complainant openly stated before court that in case his wife Noori Begum come to him with her willingness then he has no objection and in case she will not come then also he has no objection. In the respect complement signature taken at the margin of the order. Thus instant application doesn't require any further proceedings and same stand dismissed
