ORDER

Heard. Records perused.
The learned counsel for the petitioner represented that during the pendency of the suit and main petition defendant died. For which his legal heirs ought to have been brought on record. The proposed 2 to 4 defendants are legal heirs of deceased defendant. For which this petition is filed and pray to allow this petition.

The respondents side made an endorsement as no objection.

On perusal of the entire case records it is found that it is admitted fact that during the pendency of the suit and the main petition, defendant namely D.Sivaraj died. Further there is no dispute regarding the legal heirs of deceased defendant. The main suit filed for the reliefs of the declaration and permanent injunction and the main petition filed for the relief of the interim injunction. Hence the proposed 2 to 4 defendants are necessary parties to the main suit and the main petition. Accordingly this court has decided to allow this petition. However no order passed as to costs.

In the result, this petition is allowed. No costs.
