Heard both sides. Perused the records.

The Learned Counsel for the petitioner/appellant submitted that the petitioner has been convicted by the lower court and he was on bail during the time of trial, and the interim suspension of sentence has been ordered by the trial court and further submits that the petitioner has got a good arguable case in the appeal and requests to suspend the sentence imposed on him till the disposal of the main appeal.

The Learned Public Prosecutor leaves the matter to the discretion of the court.

On perusal of the judgment of the trial court, the petitioner was convicted and sentenced to undergo as follows:

| Petitioner / Appellant/Accused |   |           |     |
|--------------------------------|---|-----------|-----|
| u/s                            | Sentence  | Fine      | I/d |
| 279 of IPC                     | -   | Rs.1000/- | -   |

It is further revealed from the records that the petitioner was on bail throughout the trial period and the sentence was suspended by the trial court. Now, the petitioner/ appellant has preferred a Criminal Appeal and the same is taken on file in C.A.No.13/2026.

By considering all these facts and circumstances of the case, this court is inclined to grant interim suspension of sentence till 13.3.2026 to the petitioner.
