... Respondent/Complainant

This petition is coming before me on this day for hearing in the presence of Thiru.B.Tamil Anbu, Learned Advocate appearing for the petitioner and Thiru. K.V.Manoharan, Learned Public Prosecutor appearing for the State and after hearing either side and on perusal of available records, this court passed the following....

ORDER

The petitioner/Accused has filed this petition under section 482 of BNSS. prays to enlarge him on anticipatory bail for the alleged offences punishable u/s. 296(b), 118(1), 308(4), 131, 49, 351(3) of BNS in Cr.No.12/2026 of Tiruvannamalai Taluk Police Station.

Heard Both sides. Records perused.

The Learned Counsel appearing for the Petitioner/Accused contended that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged and he has been falsely implicated in this case, the complaint is false, the investigation is almost over, he is having permanent residence and also ready to abide any condition imposed by this court and hence, prayed to enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail.

The Learned Public Prosecutor appearing for the State submitted that the petitioner/accused abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, assaulted and also threatened with dire consequences, and the injured admitted on 18.1.2026 and discharged from the hospital on 20.1.2026 and 4 more previous cases to the credit of the petitioner, the investigation has been completed.Hence opposed to grant Anticipatorybail to the petitioner.

Having considered the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of offence, the injured person has been discharged from the hospital, completion of material portion of investigation, in the absence of strong objection raised on the side of prosecution, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
