This petition is coming before me on this day for hearing in the presence of Thiru.A.Azaruddin, Learned Advocate appearing for the petitioner and Thiru. K.V.Manoharan, Learned Public Prosecutor appearing for the State and after hearing either side and on perusal of available records, this court passed the following....

ORDER

Petition for Anticipatory bail

The petitioners/Accused have filed this petition under section 482 of BNS. prays to enlarge them on anticipatory bail for the alleged offences punishable u/s. 296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 351(2) of BNS in Cr.No.57/2026 of Dusi Police Station.

Heard Both sides. Records perused.

The Learned Counsel appearing for the Petitioners/Accused contended that the petitioners has not committed any offence as alleged and they have been falsely implicated in this case, the complaint is false, the investigation is almost over, they are having permanent residence and also ready to abide any condition imposed by this court and hence, prayed to enlarge the petitioners on anticipatory bail.

The Learned Public Prosecutor appearing for the State submitted that the petitioners/accused abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and assaulted and threatened him with dire consequences and the investigation has not been completed and the injured admitted on 14.03.2026 and discharged on 16.03.2026 ,hence opposed to grant Anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Having considered the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of dispute over the not return the jewels 10 years back, injured person has been discharged from the hospital, completion of material portion of investigation, in the absence of strong objection raised on the side of prosecution, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

In the result, this Anticipatory Bail Petition is allowed with the following conditions:
