C.M.P. No. 03/2026, in SC No. 04/2024

Raja (35),
S/o. Chandiran,

.. Petitioner / Accused No.2

/Vs/

State Rep. By
Inspector of Police,
Anakkavoor P.S
(Cr. No. 468/2011)

.. Respondent / Complainant

This petition coming before me for final hearing today in the presence of Tr. D. Subramanian and Tr. D. Viji, Advocates Legal aid defense Counsels for the Petitioner/Accused No.2 and the Additional Public Prosecutor for the State and after hearing both sides and upon perusal of the case records and having stood over for consideration till this day, this court delivered the following:

ORDER

Petition filed U/s. 483 BNSS seeking bail for the Petitioner/Accused No.2. He was charged for the offences U/s. 120(b), 404, 302, 201, 302 r/w 34 of IPC.

1) The Petitioner / Accused No.2 was absent on 08.06.2022 and therefore, NBW was issued against him and he was secured and produced on NBW issued on 04.11.2024 by the Presiding Officer.

2) The Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that the Petitioner/Accused No.2 was arrested and remanded to judicial custody for the offences U/s. 120(b), 404, 302, 201, 302 r/w 34 of IPC.

3) The learned Counsel for the Petitioner/Accused No.2 vehemently argued that, and due to the non appearance of the Petitioner/Accused No.2 NBW was issued against him. The Petitioner/Accused No.2, was arrested and remanded to Judicial Custody by the Respondent Police on the basis of the NBW which was pending for a very long period from 04.11.2024. The Petitioner/Accused No.2 was unable to attend this court for certain reasons. The Petitioner/Accused No.2 is innocent and he has not committed any offence and he is a respectable person in the locality and will not abscond and he is ready to produce sureties and is ready to abide by any condition imposed by this court. Further No bail application has been filed before the Hon'ble High Court of Madras.

4) On perusal of the entire case records, this court observes that, if the Petitioner/Accused No.2 was regularly present before this court, what prevented him from appearing before this court, if the Petitioner/Accused No.2 had no intention to abscond from the proceedings, then it is the duty of the learned counsel for the Petitioner/Accused No.2 to recall the NBW warrant.

5) But, even then, in the interest of Justice and considering the fact that the petitioner in incarceration for more than 464 days, this court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail on his executing.

1. A personal bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- with two sureties for the like sum.

2. The sureties should be Blood Related sureties and they should produce documents, to prove their ownership of the property and on further condition.

3. That, the petitioner should appear before this Court on every working day at 10.30 am until further orders.

In the result, the bail application is allowed.

Dictated by me to the Steno - Typist, typed by her directly on the Laptop, pronounced by me in Open Court, this the 10th day of February 2026.

Sd/- C.Jayasree,
Additional District and Sessions Judge (FAC),
