... Respondent/Husband

This Civil Miscellaneous Appeal came up before me on 07.07.2026 for final hearing in the presence of Thiru.K.Pulendhiran, counsel for the Appellant/Respondent/Husband in the petition and Thiru.V.Hari Baskar, Counsel for the Respondent/ petitioner/wife, in the petition and upon perusing the petition, affidavit, counter etc. and connected records and upon hearing the arguments of both side and having stood over for consideration of this Court and this court delivers the following:

Judgment

1) The Petitioner/Respondent/Husband has filed this Civil Miscellaneous Appeal under order 28(1) of Hindu Marriage Act against the fair order and decretal order dated 12.10.2023 made in I.A No.4/2022 in HMOP No.113/2019 on the file of the Subordinate Court, Lalgudi u/s.27 of Hindu Marriage Act allowing the prayer therein.

2) The Appellant/husband had initially filed a petition under Section.9 of Hindu Marriage Act on the file of Learned Subordinate Court, Lalgudi in HMOP.No. 113/2019 for the relief of restitution of conjugal rights. The respondent/wife contest the case of her husband. The respondent/wife had filed a petition under Section.27 of Hindu Marriage Act in I.A.No.4/2022 for the relief of return of Seervarisai presented by her parents at the time of her marriage, which are more fully described in the schedule in the HMOP.No.113/2019 and the Learned Subordinate Judge, Lalgudi partly allowed the I.A.No.4/2022 on 12.10.2023 and directing the appellant/ husband to handed over the seervarisai when were now in the custody of appellant / husband viz., 2 Sovereign Gold Chain, ½ Sovereign of Gold Ring, ½ Sovereign of Gold stud and the household articles in tune of Rs.10,000/- to the Respondent/Wife on or before 16.11.2023.

3) Being aggrieved by the Conditional Order passed by Learned Subordinate Judge, Lalgudi the dated 12.10.2023, the Appellant / Husband has filed this CMA under Section 28(1) of Hindu Marriage Act.

4) In the mean while, the respodent/ petitioner/ wife side has filed a memo by stating that since the husband failed to comply the conditional order passed by the Learned Subordinate Court, Lalgudi in IA.No.4/2022 dated 12.10.23, hence, the Learned Subordinate Court, Lalgudi dismissed the Main OP namely HMOP.No.113/2023 on 04.01.2024.

5) Further, the respondent/petitioner/ wife side has submitted that the appeal filed by husband against the order dated 12.10.23 under section.28 (1) of Hindu Marriage Act is not maintainable and she has questioned the maintainability of this petition. She has also filed a petition under sec 151 of CPC to decide the maintainability of this CMA, at the first instance. After hearing both side regarding maintainability of this CMA, this court proceeds to decide the maintainability.

6) Heard both side and perused the records.

7) The point for consideration is whether Civil Miscellaneous Appeal is maintainable or not? as against the order passed by the Learned Subordinate Court in a petition filed under Section.27 of Hindu Marriage Act in I.A.No.4/2022 for the relief of return of Seervarisai presented by her parents at the time of her marriage ?

8) It is useful to refer the Section.27 of Hindu Marriage Act which reads as follows:-

Sec. 27. Disposal of property.-

In any proceeding under this Act, the court may make such provisions in the decree as it deems just and proper with respect to any property presented, at or about the time of marriage, which may belong jointly to both the husband and the wife.

9) The learned counsel appearing for the Respondent/ Petitioner/ Wife has relied on the following decision, In S.Menaka Vs K.S.K.Nepolian Socraties dated 21.03.2024 reported in 2024- 2 _ CTC 742 which read as follows:-

(a) Against an order of interim maintenance / pendente lite maintenance made under Section 24 of The Hindu Marriage Act, an appeal will not lie either under Section 28 of Hindu Marriage Act or under Section 19 of Family Courts Act;

(b) However, a revision under Article 227 of the Constitution of India will lie to this Court against an order of interim maintenance / pendente lite maintenance made under Section 24 of the Hindu Marriage Act irrespective of whether it is made by a regular civil court or a Family Court;

10) In view of the above decision, it is clear that any interlocutory order passed in a HMOP for the relief of an order of interim maintenance or litigation expenses, a Civil Miscellaneous Appeal will not lie and only a civil revision petition under Article 227 of the Constitution of India alone will lie, before the Hon'ble High Court against the said interlocutory order. If the trial court has passed an order under Sec 27 of Hindu Marriage Act at the time of disposal of the main HMOP petition, normally civil miscellaneous appeal will lie. But in this case, the trial court has disposed the said I.A.No.4/2022 filed by the Respondent / wife u/s.27 of Hindu Marriage Act, for the relief of return of Seervarisai presented by her parents at the time of her marriage during the pendency of main HMOP, it can be treated only as interlocutory order and this CMA is not maintainable.

11) Further, it was held in S.Paramaguru Vs Subbulakshmi in CRP (PD) (MD) No.1199 of 2022 dated 01.07.2025 reported in 2025 Supreme (online) (Mad) 41577 wherein it was held as follows:

A civil Revision petition becomes in fructuous. if the main suit is disposed during the pendency.

12) The respondent/ petitioner/ wife side has filed a memo by stating that since the husband failed to comply the conditional order passed by the Learned Subordinate Court, Lalgudi in IA.No.4/2022 dated 12.10.23, hence, the Learned Subordinate Court, Lalgudi dismissed the Main OP namely HMOP.No.113/2023 on 04.01.2024. The appellant/ husband side filed a memo by stating that I.A.No.6/2025 to restore the above HMOP alone is pending before the trial court. Since, the main HMOP itself was dismissed for default by the trial court on 04.01.2024 and the same was not yet restored as on today, this CMA as against the interlocutory order passed in the main petition is not maintainable.

13) Hence, this court did not have power to entertain Civil Miscellaneous Appeal against the impugned interlocutory order passed in Section 27 of Hindu Marriage Act in I.A.No.4/2022 dated 12.10.2023. Hence, the Civil Miscellaneous Appeal itself is not maintainable.

14) In fine,

1) This Civil Miscellaneous Appeal is not maintainable, allowing the application filed under Section 27 of Hindu Marriage Act, by the Learned Subordinate Court, Lalgudi in I.A.No.4/2022 in HMOP No.113/2019 dated 12.10.2023, which was interlocutory order and the same is liable to be dismissed.

2) Accordingly, this Civil Miscellaneous Appeal is dismissed. Consequently, connected interlocutory petitions are closed.

3) However, if necessary the Appellant/respondent/ husband can approach appropriate court for necessary relief. He is also entitled to claim benefit u/s 14 of Limitation Act. No cost.
