This petition coming before me for hearing, on this day, in the presence of Thiru. P. Savarimuthu, Public Prosecutor for the State and of advocate Thiru. N. Chandramohan, for the petitioners and after hearing both sides and considering these necessary materials, this court today passed the following:-

ORDER

It is an application for anticipatory bail filed u/s. 482 of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023.

FIR was registered against the petitioners and another accused for the offences u/s. 191(2), 296(b) and 115(2) of BNS, 2023 and Sec.4 of Tamilnadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act, 2002. The petitioners are A1 to A5 in this case. The occurrence happened on 21.05.2026.

The learned counsel for the petitioners contended that the petitioners are innocents and they have not committed any such offence and praying to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

On the other hand, the learned Public Prosecutor contended that the injured was discharged from the hospital and out of 2 previous cases, one case is pending against A2 and 3 previous cases pending against A3 were already disposed and the investigation is pending and hence objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Heard both sides. Records perused. On perusal of records would show that there was scuffle between the parties in respect of throwing the waste water in the street and in the scuffle, the petitioners and another accused attacked the defacto complainant hands and caused injuries to her and the injured was discharged from the hospital. The occurrence happened on 21.05.2026. Considering the facts and circumstance of the case, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with following conditions;
