Inspector of Police,
Uppliyapuram P.S., Trichy Cr.No. 157/2026

...Respondent

This petition coming before me for hearing, on this day, in the presence of Thiru. P. Savarimuthu, Public Prosecutor for the State and of advocate Thiru. K. Vigneswaran, for the petitioner and after hearing both sides and considering these necessary materials, this court today passed the following:-

ORDER

It is an application for bail filed u/s.483 of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023.

FIR was registered against the petitioner for the offences u/s. 4(1)(C) and 4(1-A)(i) of Tamil Nadu Prohibition (Amendment) Act, 2024. The occurrence happened on 23.05.2026. The petitioner has been in judicial custody from 23.05.2026 onwards.

According to the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner is a senior citizen and he is an innocent and he has not committed any such offence and he has been falsely implicated in this case and hence, prays to enlarge the petitioner in the above petition on bail.

On the other hand, the learned Public Prosecutor contended that the petitioner involved in the offence and the property was recovered by the respondent police and 5 previous case of similar nature is pending against the petitioner and the investigation is pending and hence, objected to enlarge the petitioner on bail.

Heard both sides. Records perused. On perusal of records, it would show when the police was on raid, the petitioner was in possession of 29 bottles of Black Pearl brandy which contains 180 ml with poisonous smell in a gunny bag for sale without any license. On suspicion that poisonous substances would have been added to give more intoxication. The property was recovered by the respondent police. The occurrence happened on 23.05.2026 and the petitioner has been in judicial custody from 23.05.2026 onwards. Major portion of the investigation might have been over by this point of time. Considering the period of custody and also considering the facts and circumstance of the case, this court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail with the following conditions :-
