... Respondent / Complainant.

The petition has been filed on behalf of Petitioner/Accused to release him on bail U/s.303(2) BNS.

This application / petition coming before me for final hearing on 10.07.2026. This court has taken up this petition for bail in pursuance of the bail petition filed by A. Punniaseelan, Learned counsel for the petitioner and the Learned Assistant Public Prosecutor, representing for the state, upon perusing the petition and the relevant materials on record and upon hearing both sides arguments, this court passes the following order :

ORDER

Heard both sides. Records perused.

The Petitioner is the accused in Crime.No.193/2026 of Thuvrankurichi Police Station for the alleged offences U/s.303(2) Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita 2023. Learned counsel for Petitioner has filed this petition, seeking for grant of bail. The learned counsel for the petitioner contented that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. The petitioner was remanded to Judicial custody on 11.06.2026. The learned counsel also submitted that the petitioner is ready to furnish adequate sureties as directed by this court and assured that the accused would not abscond beyond the jurisdiction of this Court. Hence, the learned counsel prayed for the release of the petitioner on bail.

On the other hand, the Learned Assistant Public Prosecutor objected for the grant of bail. Notice was issued to the Learned Assistant Public Prosecutor and Inspector of Thuvrankurichi Police Station. They submitted their reply stating that the prosecution has not completed its investigation. Learned Assistant Public Prosecutor submitted that there previous case pending against the petitioner. He also submitted that if the present Petitioner/Accused is enlarged on bail, then he would tamper the witness and also there is possibility of him absconding from the jurisdiction of this court.

The court gave thoughtful considerations to the rival submissions made by both the sides and upon perusal of records and submissions it is manifest that the accused is in judicial custody for about 29 days since his date of remand on 11.06.2026.

Upon perusing case records, it is seen that there is no change in any circumstances. The investigation is still in the preliminary stage. There are previous cases pending against the petitioner. The allegations against accused are grave in nature. Hence, taking in to consideration the gravity of the allegations and absence of change in circumstances, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the Petitioner.

In the result, this bail petition is dismissed.

This order has been dictated by me to the Steno Typist, corrected and pronounced by me in the open court on this 10th day of July 2026.

Judicial Magistrate,
Manapparai.
