 U/s.296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 351(3) of BNS.

...Respondent/Complainant

This petition coming before me for final hearing on 02.06.2026. This court has taken up this petition for bail in pursuance of the bail petition filed by Thiru.G. Vivek Raja, M.A., B.L., Learned counsel for the petitioner/accused and the Learned Assistant Public Prosecutor for the respondent/complainant. Upon perusing the petition and the relevant materials available on record and upon hearing both sides and having stood over for consideration, this court passed the following: -

ORDER

This bail petition has been filed under section 480 of BNSS praying to release the accused on bail, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 12.05.2026 for an alleged offence U/s.296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 351(3) of BNS.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner/accused submitted that, the petitioner/accused is innocent and it is a false case foisted against him and the petitioner/accused is under judicial custody from 12.05.2026. He also submitted that the petitioner/accused is ready to offer solvent sureties for their appearance and he will never abscond nor evade the process of law and is ready to abide any condition which may be imposed by the Court.

3. The learned Assistant public Prosecutor for respondent would submit in her reply statement that, the investigation is pending and if they released on bail he may abscond to somewhere and may tamper the prosecution witness. Hence, strongly objected for granting bail.

4. Heard both sides. Records perused.

5. On due consideration of the above submission and materials available on records, this court is of the view that, the accused has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 12.05.2026 for an alleged offence U/s.296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 351(3) of BNS. The prosecution is under apprehension that if the petitioner is enlarged on bail, he may abscond and tamper the witnesses. The same may be overcome by imposing certain conditions. Considering the above facts and the petitioner is in custody for the past 22 days and he is ready to furnish sureties and abide conditions, this court is inclined to grant bail. Accordingly, this petition is allowed and the petitioner is released on bail on the following conditions.

- i) The Petitioner/Accused are directed to execute a bond for for each Rs.10,000/- along with two sureties for a like sum to the satisfaction of this court.
- ii) The Petitioner/Accused shall appear and sign before the respondent police station daily at 10.00 A.M. for the period of 20 days without fail.
- iii) The Petitioner/Accused shall not abscond either during investigation or trial and shall co-operate with the respondent police as and when required for interrogation.
- iv) The Petitioner/Accused shall not try to tamper evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.
- v) The Petitioner/accused shall appear before this court as and when required and also during the course of trial without fail.

vi) The Petitioner/accused shall not commit and indulge in any subsequent offence and in case of violation of the above said conditions, the police are at liberty to file petition for cancellation of this bail.

This order has been dictated by me to the Steno-Typist, corrected and pronounced by me in the open court on this 02nd day of June 2026.
