.....Respondent/Complainant

Petition dated: 24.02.2025 u/s 483 of BNSS praying to enlarge the petitioner on bail

This petition coming on this day for hearing before me having the petition filed by the petitioners Counsel M/s R. Bhagiaraj, D. Loganathan, the respondent police through the Public Prosecutor, and upon hearing the arguments of both sides, perusing the reply of the Public Prosecutor for the State/Respondent and perusing the records and material and hearing both sides, this court made the following:-

ORDER

Heard arguments of both side. Records perused. Petition filed u/s 483 of BNSS seeking to release the petitioner who was remanded on 23.02.2026 in Crime No.163/2025 on the file of Kadambathur police station registered for the offence u/s 324(4), 296(b), 118(1), 351(3) of BNS r/w 4(a), 5 of Explosive Substances Act..

The learned counsel for the petitioner argued that, petitioner is innocent, he has been falsely implicated, only due to wordy quarrel due to previous enmity since the defacto complainant previously assaulted one Dilly, the quarrel happened, all are known persons belong to the same village, co-accused were granted bail by this court, the petitioner already obtained anticipatory bail by the Hon'ble High Court, Madras in CrI.O.P.No.33996/2025 dated 11.12.2025 itself, but only due to non-execution of surety, he was arrested, there is no recovery for proving the explosive substance made, only based on the confession of co-accused, all the co-accused were already granted bail by this Court , there is no injury to anyone during the alleged occurrence, the petitioner is in custody for the past 17 days, petitioner is ready to cooperate for investigation and will abide by any condition, therefore prayed for granting the bail.

Notice given to concerned police and reply received. The learned Public prosecutor argued that on 21.10.2025 when the defacto complainant's husband was in his house, due to previous enmity that the defacto complainant assaulted one Dilli, the petitioner along with other accused trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant and abused him in filthy language assaulted him with knife and wooden log and also threatened him with country bomb by demonstrating that , and escaped, the defacto complainant's husband sustained injuries, admitted in hospital, later discharged, based on the complaint, FIR was registered u/s 324(4), 296(b), 118(1), 351(3), of BNS r/w 4, 5 of Explosive Substances Act, the petitioner was arrested on 23.10.2025 , the petitioner is having one previous case and the investigation is pending.

The petitioner states in this petition that there is no similar bail petition is pending before any other Court including Hon'ble High Court, Madras and the respondent has also not stated as to pending of any bail petition before Hon'ble High Court, Madras in this case. Hence, this Court considers that there is no impediment to entertain this petition and pass orders on merits.

As per the reply of the learned Public Prosecutor, investigation is still pending. Even though the co-accused were already released on bail, the petitioner was arrested only on 23.02.2026 and the alleged offence is serious in nature,

Therefore, on considering

- (i) grave nature of offence
- (ii) investigation is still pending
- (iii) serious accusation of offence as against the petitioner under explosive substances Act.
- (v) and also considering other facts and circumstances,

this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

In the result, this petition is dismissed.
