State Rep. by the Inspector of Police,

Arambakkam Police station

(Crime No: 271/2024)

.....Respondent/Complainant

Petition dated: 25.02.2026 u/s 482 of BNSS praying to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner

This petition coming on this day for hearing before me having the petition filed by the petitioner Counsel M/s V. Nirmalraj, S. Sarbel, Y. Dhanraj, D. Alexander, the respondent police through the Public Prosecutor, and upon hearing the arguments of both sides, perusing the reply of the Public Prosecutor for the State/Respondent and perusing the records and material and hearing both sides, this court made the following:-

ORDER

Heard arguments of both side. Records perused. Petition filed u/s 482 of BNSS seeking to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner who apprehends arrest in Crime No. 271/2024 on the file of Arambakkam police station registered for the offence u/s 294(b), 324, 506(ii) , 307 IPC.

The learned counsel for the petitioner argued that, petitioner is innocent, he has been falsely implicated in this case, the injured is already discharged, this case is of the year 2024, all the co-accused were released on bail, investigation is completed, charge sheet was also filed, petitioner is ready to cooperate for enquiry, hence prayed to grant anticipatory bail.

Notice given to concerned police and reply received. The learned Public prosecutor argued that the defacto complainant lodged the complaint stating that on 03.05.2024 at about 10 AM, when the defacto complainant in his house, due to previous enmity, the petitioner along with other accused trespassed into the house and assaulted the defacto complainant with knife, he sustained injuries, admitted in hospital, later discharged, based on the complaint FIR was registered, and the investigation is pending. ,

The petitioner states in this petition that there is no similar bail petition is pending before any other Court including Hon'ble High Court, Madras and the respondent has also not stated as to pending of any bail petition before Hon'ble High Court, Madras in this case. Hence, this Court considers that there is no impediment to entertain this petition and pass orders on merits.

As per the reply of the learned Public Prosecutor, petitioner is a local resident and first offender. The injured person is already discharged. This case is of the year 2024.

Therefore, on considering

- (i) Nature of offence ,
- (ii) it appears that substantial part of investigation is completed,

- (iii) that the injured person is already discharged,
- (iv) that as per the representation of the learned Public Prosecutor, it appears that the petitioner is a local resident and first offender,
- (v) the representation of the learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner being local resident will cooperate for investigation and will abide by any condition,
- (vi) also considering other facts and circumstances, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner on imposing conditions.

In the result, Anticipatory bail is granted to petitioner in the event of their arrest and on execution of a bond for Rs.10,000/- with two sureties for the like sum each to the satisfaction of District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Gummidipoondi. The petitioner shall surrender before the said Magistrate within 15 days from today and report and sign before the respondent police daily at 10.00 AM for 30 days. The petitioners shall abide the condition as contemplated u/s 482 of BNSS. Any violation of the conditions, the Judicial Magistrate is entitled to take action as per the Judgment of the Supreme Court in P.K. Shaji Vs. State of Kerala AIR 2005 SCW 5560.

Dictated to the Shorthand Writer and Pronounced by me in Open Court on this 2nd day of April, 2026
