(Crime No: 71/2026)

.....Respondent/Complainant

Petition dated: 04/03/2026 u/s 482 of B.N.S.S., praying to grant anticipatory bail to the Petitioners

This petition coming on this day for hearing before me having the petition filed by the petitioner Counsel M/s.V.N.Suresh, E.Ramkumar and the respondent police through the Public Prosecutor and hearing the arguments of both sides, perusing the reply of the Public Prosecutor for the State/Respondent and perusing the records and material and hearing both sides, this court made the following:-

ORDER

Heard arguments of both side. Records perused. Petition filed u/s 482 BNSS seeking anticipatory bail to the petitioner who apprehends arrest in Crime No. 71/2026 of Periyapalayam Police Station, for the alleged offense u/s 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) of BNS.

The learned counsel for the petitioner argued that, there was only a wordy quarrel arose between petitioner and the de-facto complainant due to previous enmity, the petitioners are innocents no way connected with the alleged offences, no one is injured and hospitalized, the petitioners have no bad antecedents, the petitioners are are falsely implicated in this case and is ready to abide any conditions imposed by this court.

Notice given to concerned police. The learned Public prosecutor for the State raised objection to grant bail to the petitioner and argued that, due to previous enmity, on 26.02.2026, while the defacto complainant's son was sitting Gangaianman koil near the stage, where the petitioners came and abused the defacto complainant's son with filthy language and assaulted him with helmet, the defacto complainant's son sustained injuries taken to hospital treated later discharged, based on the complaint, FIR was registered and the investigation is pending. No previous case as against the petitioners.

The petitioner states in his petition that there is no similar bail petition is pending before any other Court including Hon'ble High Court, Madras and the respondent has also not stated as to pending of any bail petition before Hon'ble High Court, Madras in this case. Hence, this Court considers that there is no impediment to entertain this petition and pass orders on merits.

As per the reply of the learned Public Prosecutor, the 2nd petitioner is being a lady and the petitioners are local residents and also first offenders. All the offences are punishable with imprisonment only upto 7 years. Thus, it does not appear that custodial interrogation of petitioners would be necessary.

Therefore, on considering

1. substantial part of investigation is completed,
2. that the injured had discharged,
3. the 2nd petitioner is being a lady and the petitioners are local residents and also first offenders,
4. the representation of the learned counsel for the petitioners local residents and also first offenders will cooperate for enquiry and will abide by any condition,
5. and also considering other facts and circumstances, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners on imposing conditions.

In the result, Anticipatory bail is granted to the petitioner in the event of his arrest and on execution of a bond each for Rs.10,000/- with two sureties for the like sum each to the satisfaction of District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate Uthukottai. The petitioner shall surrender before the said Magistrate within 15 days from today and report before the respondent police daily by 10.00 AM for 30 days. The petitioner shall abide the condition as contemplated u/s 482 BNSS Any violation of the conditions, the Judicial Magistrate is entitled to take action as per the Judgment of the Supreme Court in P.K. Shaji Vs. State of Kerala AIR 2005 SCR 5560.

Dictated to the Steno Typist and Pronounced by me in Open Court, this the 7th day of April 2026.
