The learned counsel for the petitioners argued that, petitioners are innocents and they are in no way connected with the alleged offence, they were not at all present in the place of occurrence, The petitioner is completely not aware any of the details of the alleged conspirators in commission of offence, only since the body of the deceased was found near the house of the petitioners and also defacto complainant's brother was in illegal contact with the wife of the 1st petitioner, only on suspicion, they were arrested, the petitioners who are the father and son are arrested, the 2nd petitioner is only 19 years old, and they are in judicial custody for the past 30 days, petitioners are ready to cooperate for investigation and will abide by any condition, therefore prayed for granting the bail.

Notice given to concerned police and reply received. The learned Public prosecutor argued that the defacto complainant is the bother of the deceased Chinnappan, the said Chinnappan was having illegal relationship with one Devi, who is the wife of the 1st petitioner and the mother of the 2nd petitioner, which is warned by the 1st petitioner, who is the husband of the said Devi and the 2nd petitioner, her son threatened the deceased person to cut the relationship, however, the deceased continued to have relationship with the wife of the 2nd petitioner herein, enraged over that on 03.03.2026 at about 10.30 AM, the petitioners assaulted the deceased with knife, he sustained grievous injuries and died on the spot, based on the complaint, FIR was registered u/s 103 of BNS and petitioners were arrested on 04.03.2026 and the investigation is pending.

The petitioner states in this petition that there is no similar bail petition is pending before any other Court including Hon'ble High Court, Madras and the respondent has also not stated as to pending of any bail petition before Hon'ble High Court, Madras in this case. Hence, this Court considers that there is no impediment to entertain this petition and pass orders on merits.

As per the reply of the learned Public Prosecutor, investigation is pending in preliminary stage and the alleged offence is serious in nature.

Therefore, on considering
