State Rep. by the Inspector of Police,

(Crime No: 132/2026)

.....Respondent/Complainant

Petition dated: 01.06.2026 u/s 482 of BNSS praying to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners

This petition coming on this day for hearing before me having the petition filed by the petitioners Counsel M/s K.P. Ajayprasath, C. Murugan, K. Rajkamal, the respondent police through the Public Prosecutor, and upon hearing the arguments of both sides, perusing the reply of the Public Prosecutor for the State/Respondent and perusing the records and material and hearing both sides, this court made the following:-

ORDER

Heard arguments of both side. Records perused. Petition filed u/s 482 of BNSS seeking to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner who apprehend arrest in Crime No. 132/2026 on the file of Manavala Nagar police station registered for the offence u/s 296(b), 118(1), 351(3) of BNS r/w 4 of TNPWH Act.

The learned counsel for the petitioner argued that, petitioner is innocent and only due to wordy quarrel between the brother in law of the defacto complainant, only due to matrimonial dispute a false complaint was lodged, the injured is already discharged, petitioner has no antecedents he is ready to cooperate for investigation, and will abide by any condition, therefore prayed for granting the bail.

Notice given to concerned police and reply received. The learned Public prosecutor argued that on 24.05.2026 at about 8.15 PM, when the defacto complainant was in her house, the petitioner who is the brother in law of the defacto complainant 's children were playing, the petitioner abused the children in filthy language, when the defacto complainant questioned, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also assaulted her with iron hand ring , she sustained injuries over forehead, admitted in hospital and later discharged, based on the complaint, FIR was registered the petitioner is having two previous cases and the investigation is pending.

The petitioners state in this petition that there is no similar bail petition is pending before any other Court including Hon'ble High Court, Madras and the respondent has also not stated as to pending of any bail petition before Hon'ble High Court, Madras in this case. Hence, this Court considers that there is no impediment to entertain this petition and pass orders on merits.

As per the reply of the learned Public Prosecutor, the investigation is pending and the alleged offence is serious in nature which is against women and even the petitioner is having criminal antecedents with previous cases

Therefore, on considering

- (i) grave nature of offence which is against a woman,
- (ii) investigation is pending,
- (iii) premature stage,
- (iv) serious accusation of the offence as against the petitioner u/s 4 of TNPWH Act
- (v) that the representation of the learned Public Prosecutor that since the 1st petitioner is having two previous cases, if he is granted anticipatory bail and then absconds, investigation in all the cases against him would also be affected,
- (vi) and also considering other facts and circumstances,

this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

In the result, this petition is dismissed.

Dictated to the Shorthand Writer and Pronounced by me in Open Court on this 9th day of June , 2026
