(Crime No: 273/2026)

.....Respondent/Complainant

Petition dated: 03/06/2026 u/s 482 of B.N.S.S., praying to grant anticipatory bail to the Petitioners

This petition coming on this day for hearing before me having the petition filed by the petitioners Counsel M/s.A.Thamarai Kannan, K.Kanthan, M.G.Muthusamy, G.Kothandaraman and the respondent police through the Public Prosecutor and hearing the arguments of both sides, perusing the reply of the Public Prosecutor for the State/Respondent and perusing the records and material and hearing both sides, this court made the following:-

ORDER

Heard arguments of both side. Records perused. Petition filed u/s 482 BNSS seeking anticipatory bail to the petitioners who apprehends arrest in Cr.No.273/2026 on the file of Korattur Police Station for the alleged offences u/s 296(b), 118(1), 351(3) of BNS.

The learned counsel for the petitioners argued that, there was a wordy quarrel arose between the defacto complainant and the petitioners during the death procession, the petitioners are innocents, no way connected with the alleged offences, no one is injured and hospitalized, the petitioners have no bad antecedents, the petitioners are falsely implicated in this case and is ready to abide any conditions imposed by this court.

Notice given to concerned police. The learned Public prosecutor for the State raised objection to grant bail to the petitioner and argued that, the defacto complainant is a worker in crematorium, on 19.05.2026 at 10.30 p.m., while the defacto complainant and his co worker were in the grave yard , where the petitioners who were working in nearby bar came and asked him to see the graveyard which was objected by the defacto complainant, there was a quarrel arose between them, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and assaulted him with beer bottle and threatened him with dire consequence and escaped from the place, the defacto complainant sustained injuries and taken to hospital admitted for treatment later discharged, based on the complaint FIR was registered and investigation is pending.

The petitioner states in his petition that there is no similar bail petition is pending before any other Court including Hon'ble High Court, Madras and the respondent has also not stated as to pending of any bail petition before Hon'ble High Court, Madras in this case. Hence, this Court considers that there is no impediment to entertain this petition and pass orders on merits.

As per the reply of the learned Public Prosecutor, the petitioners are local residents and also a first offenders. All the offences are punishable with imprisonment only upto 7 years. Thus, it does not appear that custodial interrogation of petitioners would be necessary.

Therefore, on considering

1. substantial part of investigation is completed,
2. that the injured had discharged,
3. the petitioners are local residents and also a first offenders,
4. the representation of the learned counsel for the petitioners are local residents and also a first offenders will cooperate for enquiry and will abide by any condition,
5. and also considering other facts and circumstances, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners on imposing conditions.

In the result, Anticipatory bail is granted to the petitioner in the event of his arrest and on execution of a bond each for Rs.10,000/- with two sureties for the like sum each to the satisfaction of Judicial Magistrate Ambattur. The petitioners shall surrender before the said Magistrate within 15 days from today and report before the Tiruvallur Town police daily by 10.00 AM for 30 days. The petitioners shall abide the condition as contemplated u/s 482 BNSS Any violation of the conditions, the Judicial Magistrate is entitled to take action as per the Judgment of the Supreme Court in P.K. Shaji Vs. State of Kerala AIR 2005 SCR 5560.

Dictated to the Steno Typist and Pronounced by me in Open Court, this the 11th day of June 2026.
