Present : Tmt. R.D. Gurulakshmi, M.A., M.L., PGDI & CL
District Munsif, Tiruttani

Dated this Tuesday, 10th day of February 2026.
IA No.3/2026 in O.S.No.55/2024

Periyasamy ...Petitioner/Defendant
/ Vs/
K. Venkatesalu ... Respondent/Plaintiff

This Petition is coming on 10.02.2026 for final hearing before me in the presence of Mr. P.C. Santharani, Mr. B. Chandrean, Mrs. S. Swarnalatha, Mrs. M. Lavanya, Mrs. G. M. Vijayalakshmi, Counsels for Petitioner/Defendant, Mr. M. Baskar, Counsel for Respondent/Plaintiff. Upon perusing the entire case records and having stood over for consideration till this day this court delivered the following:

ORDER

This Petition filed U/O 8 Rule 1A(3) CPC seeking permission to receive additional documents.

Both side enquiry heard. Records perused. Petitioner filed petition to receive additional documents. Counsel for petitioner submitted as the petition mentioned documents are very vital documents to prove his case. Hence counsel for petitioner prays to allow this petition. The counsel for Respondent submitted as the petitioner followed the delay tactics to drag on the proceedings and the petition is not maintainable under Order VII Rule 3 CPC. Further submitted that the documents filed was no way connected to the suit. Hence counsel for respondent prays to dismiss this petition.

Petitioner filed this Petition seeking permission to receive additional documents. The case is pending for DW1 chief continuation. Further this is mere petition to receive additional documents. The Respondent has a chance to raise his objection at the time of marking of documents, and the respondent has the chance to cross examine the witness regarding the documents. The validity and proof of documents to be decided at the time of marking of documents. Hence in the interest of Justice, to prevent multiplicity of proceedings, to provide the petitioners an opportunity to prove their case and for proper adjudication of the case, this petition has to be allowed.

Considering the fact and circumstances this petition is allowed. No cost.

Dictated by me and typed by the typist, corrected and pronounced by me in open court on this the 10th day of February 2026.
