

Harbans Kaur vs. Sandeep Singh

Present : Sh. Parshotam K. Sharma, Adv., Counsel for the claimants.
Sh. Ali Ahmed, Adv., for counsel for respondent No.1.
Sh. Maninder Singh, Adv. Counsel for for respondent No.3.
Name of respondent No.2 not disclosed.

Heard on application under order 1 rule 10 CPC having been filed on behalf of claimants for impleading “Kuldeep Singh son of Sh.Harminder Singh, as respondent No.4. Ld. Counsel for the claimants argued that on the last date of hearing the respondent no.1 appeared and filed written statement stating therein that he had already sold the car in question to abovesaid Kuldeep Singh. It is also submitted that the respondent No.1 is still registered owner as per record. Ld. Counsel for the claimants prayed that the claimants may be allowed to implead abovesaid Kuldeep Singh as respondent No.4 being necessary party in the present claim petition.

2. Instead of filing reply to the application, the Ld. Counsel for the respondent No.1 and Ld. Counsel for the respondent No.3 suffered their respective statements that they have no objection if the application under reference is allowed.

3. Through this application the claimants just intend to implead Kuldeep Singh, to whom allegedly the respondent No.1 had sold the alleged offending vehicle, as respondent No.4. In the written statement the respondent No.1 has also admitted this fact. Even copy of affidavit with regard to sale of said vehicle to Kuldeep Singh has also placed on record.

Moreso, the application of the applicants is duly supported by affidavit. In these circumstances, the said Kuldeep Singh is necessary party in the present claim petition and no prejudice would be caused to the respondents, if the applicants are allowed to implead said Kuldeep Singh as respondent No.4. Rather it will help this court to decide the controversy more effectively. Considering all these circumstances, the present application is hereby allowed and abovesaid Kuldeep Singh is ordered to be impleaded as respondent No.4, being necessary party for decision of this case.

Amended title be filed on 28.11.2025.
