...Respondent/Complainant

This petition came before this Court on 01.06.2026 in the presence of Sri.R.Muthulakshmi, Advocate for the Petitioner/Accused and Thiru.S.Velusamy, Additional Public Prosecutor for the Respondent/ Complainant and upon hearing both sides and upon perusing the records, this court passed the following

ORDER

This petition has been filed on the side of the petitioner/accused to release the petitioner/accused on own bond.

The learned counsel for the petitioner/accused has argued that the petitioner/accused is in custody from 23.09.2025 and the petitioner/accused has granted bail by the Hon'ble Principal District Court, Tenkasi in CrI.M.P. No.3057/2025 dt. 09.01.2026 subject to the condition that the petitioner/accused shall execute a bond for Rs.10,000/- with two sureties for the likesum each to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate, Tenkasi and despite sincere efforts, the petitioner/accused is unable to furnish sureties as directed and therefore the petitioner/accused may be released on his own bond.

The learned Additional Public Prosecutor has argued that the reasons stated in the petition are not sufficient and not an acceptable one and considering the nature of offence if the petitioner/accused is released on own bond, there is possibility of absconding of petitioner/accused and therefore the petition is to be dismissed.

Records perused. The petitioner/accused is charged for the offence punishable u/s 296(b), 109(1), 351(3) of BNS registered by the respondent/complainant. The petitioner/accused is in Judicial custody from 23.09.2025 and bail has been granted by the Hon'ble Principal Sessions Court, Tenkasi in CrI.M.P. No.3057/2025 dt. 09.01.2026 subject to the condition that the petitioner/accused shall execute a bond for Rs.10,000/- with two sureties for the likesum each to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate, Tenkasi. The contention of the learned counsel for the petitioner/accused is that despite sincere efforts, the petitioner/accused is unable to furnish sureties as directed and therefore the petitioner/accused may be released on his own bond. Even though the Additional Public Prosecutor has objected this petition, considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the contention raised by the learned counsel for the petitioner/accused, even after bail has been granted, the petitioner/accused remains in custody, this Court is inclined to allow the petition. Accordingly, the condition imposed in CrI.M.P. No.3057/2025 dt. 09.01.2026 of Hon'ble Principal Sessions Court, Tenkasi is hereby modified and the petitioner/accused shall be released on bail on his own bond and the other conditions imposed in the above said bail order remains stand still.

Pronounced in the open court, on this the 2nd Day of June 2026.

Additional District and Sessions Judge,
Tenkasi.
